Any person so appointed shall be deemed to be a duly elected member.

(3) For the convenience of election, the prescribed authority shall, in accordance with such rules as may be prescribed in this behalf by the State Government:

(i) divide the area of a Gram Sabha into constituencies, not being less than three or more than five, on the basis of the number of members of the Gram Panchayat determined under sub-section (2),

(ii) allocate to each such constituency, [seats not being less than two] or more than four, on the basis of the number of members of the Gram Sabha pertaining thereto.

(4) Every Gram Panchayat shall be a body corporate by the name of the Gram Panchayat having perpetual succession and a common seal and shall, subject to the restrictions or qualifications, if any, imposed under this Act or under any other law for the time being in force, have power to accept a gift of, acquire, hold, administer and transfer property both movable and immovable and to enter into any contract or do all things necessary for carrying out its duties under this Act and shall, by its name, sue and be sued.

(5) Notwithstanding anything in sub-section (2), the State Government may associate with any Gram Panchayat elected under that sub-section or appointed under section 13, for such period as it thinks fit, any person whether a member of the Gram Sabha concerned or not, who may, in the opinion of the State Government, possess special qualifications for serving on the Gram Panchayat to enable it to function effectively; and all such person or persons shall be deemed to be members of the Gram Panchayat for all purposes except that they shall not have the right to vote and shall not be eligible for being elected as Adhyaksha or Upadhyaksha:

Provided that the total number of persons so associated with a Gram Panchayat shall not exceed one-third of the total number of members constituting the Gram Panchayat.

Sub-section (1A) was inserted by S. 4(b) of the West Bengal Gram Panchayat (Amendment) Act, 1959 (West Bengal Act XV of 1959).

Sub-section (3) was substituted for the existing sub-section by s. 2(c)(ii) of the West Bengal Panchayat and Zilla Parishad (Amendment) Act, 1965 (West Bengal Act XXVII of 1965).

Substituted by Corrigendum No. 359 (L.), dated the 26.5.66, published in the Calcutta Gazette, Part III, dated 26.5.66.
6. Every Gram Panchayat shall, at its first meeting at which a quorum is present, elect subject to the provisions of sub-section (5), one of its members to be the Adhyaksha and another member to be the Upadhyaksha of the Gram Panchayat in the manner prescribed:

Provided that if the Gram Panchayat fails to elect an Adhyaksha, the Adhyaksha of the outgoing Gram Panchayat shall resume office and continue to hold the same until a new Adhyaksha is elected.

12. (1) The term of office of the members of the Gram Panchayat shall, subject to the provisions of section 21, be four years computed from the date of the first meeting of the Gram Panchayat at which a quorum is present:

Provided that the prescribed authority may, by notification, extend the term by such period as may be specified in the notification:

Provided further that notwithstanding anything contained in this section, every member of the Gram Panchayat shall continue to hold office until the first meeting of the newly formed Gram Panchayat after a fresh election at which a quorum is present.

(2) An elected Adhyaksha and Upadhyaksha of a Gram Panchayat shall, subject to the provisions of sections 18 and 19, hold office for four years from the date of his election as Adhyaksha or Upadhyaksha, as the case may be.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (2), an elected Adhyaksha and Upadhyaksha shall be deemed to have vacated office as soon as the newly formed Gram Panchayat has assembled at the meeting held under the provisions of sub-section (6) of section 11.
13. Notwithstanding anything contained in section 11, the prescribed authority may, if it thinks fit, constitute the first Gram Panchayat and appoint the members thereof from amongst the members of the Gram Sabha for a period not exceeding one year from the date of the notification mentioned in section 3 after which they shall be replaced by members elected in the manner prescribed and thereupon they shall be deemed to have vacated office:

Provided that if the members are appointed for a period of less than one year, the prescribed authority may, if it thinks fit, extend the period up to one year:

Provided further that notwithstanding anything contained in this section, every member of the Gram Panchayat who is so appointed shall continue to hold office until the first meeting of the newly formed Gram Panchayat after the first election at which a quorum is present.

14. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Chapter, the prescribed authority may appoint two of the members of a Gram Panchayat to be its first Adhyaksha and first Upadhyaksha, respectively, for a period not exceeding one year from the date of the notification mentioned in section 3, after which period they shall be replaced by an Adhyaksha and an Upadhyaksha elected by the Gram Panchayat:

Provided that if the Adhyaksha and the Upadhyaksha are appointed for a period of less than one year, the prescribed authority may, if it thinks fit, extend the period of their appointment up to one year.

15. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Chapter, a person shall not be qualified for being elected or appointed as Adhyaksha or Upadhyaksha or a member of a Gram Panchayat, if—

(a) he is under twenty-five years of age; or

(b) he has been dismissed from the service of the Central or State Government for misconduct involving moral turpitude and where the dismissal has been made by the Central or State Government, he has been debarred from employment in public service; or

This provision was added by s. 5 of the West Bengal Panchayat (Amendment) Act, 1959 (W.B. Act XV of 1959).

These clauses were inserted by s. 2(2) of the West Bengal Panchayat and Zilla Parishad 1 Amendment Act, 1965 (West Ben. Act XXVII of 1965).
The West Bengal Panchayat Act, 1957.

(Part I.—Chapter III of Gram Panchayat  Sections 16, 17.)

(c) he has directly or indirectly, by himself or by his partner or employer or an employee, any share or interest in any contract with, by or on behalf of the Gram Panchayat.

Provided that no person shall be deemed to be disqualified for being elected or appointed as Adhyaksha, Upadhyaksha or a member of a Gram Panchayat by reason only of his having a share or interest in any public company as defined in the Companies Act, 1956, which contracts with or is employed by the Gram Panchayat; or

(d) he has been adjudged by a competent court to be of unsound mind; or

(e) he is an undischarged insolvent; or

(f) he has been adjudged by a competent court to be of unsound mind.

Provided that on application made by a person disqualified under this section, the State Government may, if satisfied on sufficient cause being shown, remove the disqualification by an order made in this behalf and shall do so if, in the opinion of the State Government, the offence does not involve moral turpitude.

(2) If any person is or has been convicted by a criminal court of an offence punishable with transportation or imprisonment for a period of more than six months, such person shall not be eligible for election or appointment as Adhyaksha or Upadhyaksha or as a member of a Gram Panchayat for five years from the date of expiration of the sentence:

Provided that on application made by a person disqualified under this sub-section, the State Government may, if satisfied on sufficient cause being shown, remove the disqualification by an order made in this behalf and shall do so if, in the opinion of the State Government, the offence does not involve moral turpitude.

16. Every election or appointment of the members of a Gram Panchayat and its Adhyaksha and Upadhyaksha shall be notified in the manner prescribed.

17. An Adhyaksha or Upadhyaksha or a member of a Gram Panchayat may resign his office by notifying in writing his intention to do so to the prescribed authority and on such resignation being accepted by the said authority shall be deemed to have vacated his office.

These words within the square brackets were inserted by s. 6 of the West Bengal Panchayat Amendment Act IV of 1970.
An elected Adhyaksha or Upadhyaksha of a Gram Panchayat may at any time be removed from office by a resolution of the Gram Panchayat carried by the votes of not less than two-thirds of the total number of members holding office for the time being, at a meeting specially convened for the purpose:

Provided that if the number of members who have voted in favour of such resolution is less than two-thirds but more than one-half of the total number of members holding office for the time being, the prescribed authority may, if it thinks fit, by order, remove the Adhyaksha or the Upadhyaksha, as the case may be, from his office.

19. (1) In the event of removal of an elected Adhyaksha or Upadhyaksha under section 18 or when a vacancy occurs in the office of an elected Adhyaksha or Upadhyaksha by resignation, death or otherwise, the Gram Panchayat shall elect another Adhyaksha or Upadhyaksha in the prescribed manner.

(2) Every Adhyaksha or Upadhyaksha elected under sub-section (1) shall hold office for the unexpired portion of the term of office of the person in whose place he is elected.

20. (f) The prescribed authority may, after giving an opportunity to a member of a Gram Panchayat to show cause against the action proposed to be taken against him, remove him from office:

(a) on the ground of misconduct in the discharge of his duties; or
(b) if he refuses to act or becomes incapable of acting as such member; or
(c) if after his election he is convicted by a criminal court of an offence involving moral turpitude and punishable with imprisonment for a period of more than six months; or
(d) if he is absent from for meetings or the Gram Panchayat for three consecutive meetings without the leave of the Gram Panchayat; or
(e) if he is in arrears for more than one year in payment of rates, tolls, fees or taxes to the Anchal Panchayat; or
(f) if he was disqualified to be a member of the Gram Panchayat at the time of his election or appointment; or
(g) if he incurs any of the disqualifications mentioned in clauses (b), (c), (d), (e) and (f) of sub-section (1) of section 15, after he is elected a member of the Gram Panchayat.
The West Bengal Panchayat Act, 1957.

(Part I.—Chapter III.—Gram Panchayat & Sections 21, 22.)

(2) Any member of a Grant Panchayat who is removed from his office by the prescribed authority on any of the grounds mentioned in clauses (a), (b), (c), (d), (e) and (g) of sub-section (1), may, within thirty days from the date of the order, appeal to the Commissioner of the Division within the local limits of whose jurisdiction the Gram Panchayat is situate, and thereupon the Commissioner of the Division may stay the operation of the order till the disposal of the appeal and he may, after giving notice of the appeal to the prescribed authority, and a Ter giving the appellant an opportunity of being heard, modify, set aside or confirm the order. The order passed by the Commissioner of the Division on such appeal shall be final.

21. (i) If the seat of a member of a Grant Panchayat becomes vacant by reason of his death, resignation, removal or otherwise, the vacancy shall be filled in the prescribed manner by appointment or election, as the case may be, under this Act.

(2) The person elected or appointed to a vacancy referred to in sub-section (1) shall hold office for the unexpired portion of the term of office of the person in whose place he is elected or appointed.

22. (1) Every Gram Panchayat shall hold a meeting at least once in a month at such time and such place within the local limits of the Gram Sabha concerned as the Adhyaksha may fix:

Provided that (the Adhyaksha when required in writing by one-third of the members of the Gram Panchayat to call a meeting shall do so within seven days, failing which the members aforesaid may, after informing the prescribed authority in writing, call a meeting after giving seven clear days' notice to the Adhyaksha and the other members of the Gram Panchayat.

(2) The Adhyaksha or in his absence the Upadhyaksha shall preside at the meetings of the Gram Panchayat; and in the absence of both, the members present shall choose one of their number to be the president of the meeting.

(3) The quorum shall be not less than one-third of the total number of members of the Gram Panchayat.

(4) All questions coming before a Gram Panchayat shall be decided by a majority of votes unless otherwise provided in this Act:

Provided that in case of equality of votes the person presiding shall have a second or casting vote.
List of business to be transacted at a meeting.

CHAPTER IV.
Anchal Panchayats.

25. (1) For the purposes hereinafter mentioned in this Act the State Government shall establish Anchal Panchayats each comprising as many contiguous Gram Sabhas as it may, by notification, fix in each case.

(2) The State Government shall in the notification, specify the names and the territorial limits of the Anchal Panchayats.

26. (1) Every Anchal Panchayat shall consist of the following members, namely—

(a) the Adhyakshas of all Gram Panchayats within its jurisdiction (ex officio);

(b) such number of members of the Gram Sabha within its jurisdiction elected at the prescribed time and in the prescribed manner by the Gram Panchayat concerned in each case as may, from time to time, be determined in such manner as may be prescribed by the prescribed authority by order made in this behalf; Dilat I here shall be at least one member for every five hundred members of the Gram Sabha and that there shall be at least one member from every Gram Sabha.

Provided that no member of a Gram Sabha shall be elected to be a member of an Anchal Panchayat if he has any of the disqualifications mentioned in section 15.

Sub-section (1) was substituted for the existing sub-section by s. 2(3) of the West Bengal Panchayat and Zilla Parishads (Amendment) Act, 1965 (West Ben. Act XXVII of 1965).

Prior to its substitution the second proviso of sub-section (3) was omitted by s. 7(a) of the West Bengal Panchayats (Amendment) Act, 1959 (West Ben. Act XXV of 1959).
(Part I—Chapter IV  Anchal Panchayats  Section 27.)

1(a) If within the time fixed for the election, a Gram Panchayat fails to elect the number of members to be elected under sub-section (1), another election shall be held to fill the vacancy or vacancies remaining unfilled and in case the Gram Panchayat still fails to elect the number of members at such second election, the State Government may appoint a member or members to complete the number. Any person so appointed shall be deemed to be duly elected member.

2. (1) The term of office of every member of an Anchal Panchayat elected by the members of a Gram Panchayat shall commence from the date of the first meeting or the Anchal Panchayat at which a quorum is present and shall extend until the first meeting of the next newly constituted Anchal Panchayat at which a quorum is present.

(2) When a vacancy occurs in the membership of an Anchal Panchayat it shall be filled within three months from the date of the vacancy by election by the Gram Panchayat which elected the member whose seat has fallen vacant.

27. (1) Every Anchal Panchayat shall at its first meeting at which a quorum is present elect in the manner prescribed one of its members to be its Pradhan and another member to be its Upa-Pradhan:

The West Bengal Panchayati Raj Act, 1957.

I of 1957 |

Provided that a person upon whom a notice as aforesaid has been served may, within thirty days from the date of receipt of the notice, appeal to the prescribed authority against the order contained in the notice wherein the prescribed authority may stay the operation of the order contained in the notice till the disposal or the appeal and it may, after giving such notice of the appeal to the Gram Panchayat concerned as may be prescribed, modify, set aside or confirm the order—

Provided further that the prescribed authority shall, when it confirms or modifies the order contained in the notice after the expiry of the period mentioned therein, fix a fresh period within which the order contained in the notice, as confirmed or modified by it, shall be carried out.

(2) If any person upon whom a notice has been served as aforesaid and which has not been set aside by the prescribed authority fails, without sufficient reason, to comply with the order contained in the notice or the order as modified by the prescribed authority, within the time specified in the notice or within the time fixed by the prescribed authority, as the case may be, he shall be liable, on conviction by a magistrate, to a fine which may extend to twenty-five rupees.

39. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Bengal Water Hyacinth Act, 1936, a Gram Panchayat may, by written notice, require the owner or occupier of any land or premises, containing a tank or pond or similar deposit of water, after taking into consideration his financial position, not to allow water-hyacinth or any other weed which may pollute water to grow thereon and to eradicate the same therefrom within such reasonable period as may be specified in the notice:

Provided that a person on whom a notice as aforesaid has been served may, within thirty days from the date of receipt of the notice, appeal to the prescribed authority against the order contained in the notice wherein the prescribed authority may stay the operation of the order contained in the notice till the disposal of the appeal and it may, after giving such notice of the appeal to the Gram Panchayat concerned as may be prescribed, modify, set aside or confirm the order—

Provided further that the prescribed authority shall, when it confirms or modifies the order contained in the notice after the expiry of the period mentioned therein, fix a fresh period within which the order contained in the notice, as confirmed or modified by it, shall be carried out.
In the event of an outbreak of cholera or any other water-borne infectious disease in any locality situated within the local limits of the jurisdiction of a Gram Panchayat, the Adhyaksha, the Upadhyaksha or any other person authorized by the Adhyaksha may, during the continuance of the outbreak, without notice and at any time, inspect and disinfect any well, tank or other place from which water is, or is likely to be, taken for the purpose of drinking and may further take such steps as he deems fit to prevent the drawing of water therefrom.

If any work required to be done by an order contained in a notice served under sections 36, 38 or 39 is not executed within the period specified in the notice or where an appeal is made to the prescribed authority, within an equal period from the date of the decision on the appeal, the Gram Panchayat may, in the absence of satisfactory grounds for non-compliance, cause such work to be carried out and the cost of carrying out such work shall be recoverable as an arrear of public demand from the person on whom the notice was served.

Subject to such rules as may be prescribed, two or more Gram Panchayats may combine, by a written instrument duly subscribed by them, to appoint a Joint Committee consisting of such representatives as may be chosen by the respective Gram Panchayats for the purpose of transacting any business or carrying out any work in which they are jointly interested and may—

(a) delegate to such committee the power, with such conditions as the Gram Panchayats may think fit to impose, to frame any scheme binding on each of the constituent Gram Panchayats as to the construction and maintenance of any joint work and the power which may be exercised by any such Panchayat in relation to such scheme; and

(b) frame or modify rules regarding the constitution of such committees and the term of office of the members thereof and the method of conducting business.

Any difference of opinion arises between the constituent Gram Panchayats under this section, it shall be referred to such officer as the State Government may prescribe, and the decision of the said officer thereon shall be final and binding on each of the constituent Gram Panchayats.

(2) Where functions are delegated to a Gram Panchayat under this section, the Gram Panchayat, in the discharge of such functions, shall act as the agent of the Zilla Parishad.

44. Subject to rules made by the State Government in this behalf, a Gram Panchayat may appoint such staff as it may consider necessary to carry out its duties under this Act and may fix the salaries and allowances to be paid to such staff.

45. A Gram Panchayat may, at a meeting specially convened for the purpose, by a resolution delegate to its Adhyaksha such duties or powers of the Panchayat as it thinks fit, subject to the approval of the prescribed authority, and may at any time by a resolution withdraw or modify the same:

Provided that when any power delegated to an Adhyaksha is withdrawn or modified, the Gram Panchayat shall forthwith give intimation thereof to the prescribed authority.

CHAPTER VI.
Powers and duties of Anchal Panchayats.

46. (1) Subject to rules made by the State Government in this behalf, an Anchal Panchayat shall be responsible for—

(a) the control and administration of the Anchal Panchayat Fund established under this Act;

(b) the imposition, assessment and collection of the taxes, rates, tolls or fees leviable under this Act;

(c) the maintenance and control of dafadars and chowkidars within its jurisdiction and securing the due performance by them of the duties imposed on them under this Act;

(d) the proper constitution and administration of the Nyaya Panchayat established under this Act;

(e) the performance of such functions as may be transferred to it under section 31 of the Catle-keepers Act, 1871.

The word "and" was omitted by s. 2(6)(a), ibid.

Substituted for the words "Disuicl Board" by s. 2(5) of the West Bengal Panchayat and Zilla Parishad (Amendment) Act, 1965 (W.C. En. Act XXV1 of 1965).

The word "and" was omitted by s. 2(8)(a), ibid.

The West Bengal Panchayat Act, 1957.

(Part I.—Chapter VI.—Powers and duties of Anchal Panchayats & Sections 47, 48.)

(2) The Anchal Panchayat may also perform such other duties as may be assigned to it by the State Government.

47. The State Government may, by general or special order published in the Official Gazette, empower an Anchal Panchayat to manage the estates and all interests therein which are vested in the State and to exercise such powers, perform such functions and discharge such duties in connection therewith as may be conferred, assigned or imposed by or under any other law for the time being in force.

48. (1) For every Anchal Panchayat, there shall be a Secretary who shall be in charge of the office of the Anchal Panchayat and shall be responsible for the preparation of its budget estimate of income and expenditure, the statement of accounts of the previous year, the report on the work done during the previous year and the work proposed to be done during the following year.

(2) The Secretary shall be the executive officer of the Anchal Panchayat and shall be appointed by the State Government or any officer or authority empowered by the State Government in this behalf.

(3) An Anchal Panchayat may, at a meeting specially convened for the purpose, by a resolution delegate to its Secretary such duties or powers of the Anchal Panchayat as it thinks fit, subject to the approval of the prescribed authority, and may at any time by a resolution withdraw or modify the same:

Provided that when any power delegated to the Secretary is withdrawn or modified, the Anchal Panchayat shall forthwith give intimation thereof to the prescribed authority.

(4) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (3), the Secretary shall act in respect of all other matters under the direction of the Pradhan through whom he shall be responsible to the Anchal Panchayat.

(5) The State Government shall make rules prescribing the method of recruitment, conditions of service, pay and allowances and the age of superannuation of the Secretary.

(6) The salary and allowances of the Secretary shall be paid out of the Anchal Panchayat Fund.

(7) Subject to rules made by the State Government in this behalf, an Anchal Panchayat may appoint such additional staff as it may consider necessary to carry out its duties under this Act, and may fix the salaries.
49. An Anchal Panchayat may, at a meeting specially convened for the purpose, by a resolution delegate to its Pradhan such duties or powers or the Anchal Panchayat as it thinks fit, subject to the approval of the prescribed authority, and may at any time by a resolution withdraw or modify the same:

Provided that when any power delegated to a Pradhan is withdrawn or modified, the Anchal Panchayat shall forthwith give intimation thereof to the prescribed authority.

50. An Anchal Panchayat may, if requested to do so by a Gram Panchayat, lend the services of its Secretary to the Gram Panchayat, on such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon between such Gram Panchayat and the Anchal Panchayat, for such purposes as may be specified by the Anchal Panchayat and thereupon the Secretary shall render such service to the Gram Panchayat.

CHAPTER VII.

Dafadars and Chowkidars.

51. (1) For general watch and ward, prevention of crime, protection of life and property and discharging all functions relevant thereto as hereinafter provided within the local limits of the jurisdiction of an Anchal Panchayat, every Anchal Panchayat shall, unless otherwise directed or other provision is made by the State Government, maintain under its control such number of dafadars and chowkidars as the State Government may by general or special order determine.

(2) The number of dafadars and chowkidars to be maintained by an Anchal Panchayat and the salary to be paid to them and the nature and the cost of their equipment and all matters relating to their recruitment, conditions of service, power and duties, superannuation, discipline, punishment and dismissal shall be determined in accordance with such rules as may be prescribed.

52. The cost of maintenance of dafadars and chowkidars or any part thereof may be contributed by the State Government to the Anchal Panchayat Fund.
53. (1) Every chowkidar shall exercise the following powers and perform the following duties:

(i) he shall give immediate information to the officer-in-charge of the police-station having jurisdiction over the area and to the Pradhan of the Anchal Panchayat, of every unnatural, suspicious or sudden death which may occur, and of any offence specified in Schedule II which may be committed within the jurisdiction of the Anchal Panchayat and he shall keep the officer-in-charge of the said police-station and the Pradhan informed of all disputes which are likely to lead to a riot or serious affray;

(ii) he may, without an order from a Magistrate and without a warrant, arrest

(a) any person who has been concerned in any cognizable offence or against whom a reasonable complaint has been made, or credible information has been received, or a reasonable suspicion exists of his having been so concerned;

(b) any person having in his possession without lawful excuse, the burden of proving which excuse shall lie on such person, any implement of house-breaking;

(c) any person who has been proclaimed as an offender under any law;

(d) any person in whose possession anything is found which may reasonably be suspected to be stolen property, or who may reasonably be suspected of having committed an offence, with reference to such thing;

(e) any person who obstructs a police officer while in the execution of his duty or who has escaped, or attempts to escape, from lawful custody;

(f) any person reasonably suspected of being a deserter from the Indian Army, Navy or Air Force; and

(g) any released convict committing a breach of any rule made under sub-section (3) of section 565 of the Code Act re Criminal Procedure, 1898;

(iii) he shall, to the best of his ability, prevent, and he may interpose for the purpose of preventing, the commission of any offence specified in Schedule II.
(Part.—Chapter VII. Daladars and Chowkidars. Section 53.)

(iv) he shall assist private persons in making such arrests as they may lawfully make, and he shall report such arrests without delay to the officer-in-charge of the police-station having jurisdiction over the area;

(v) he shall observe, and from time to time report to such officer-in-charge, the movements of all bad characters within the jurisdiction of the Anchal Panchayat;

(vi) he shall report to such officer-in-charge the arrival of suspicious characters in the neighbourhood;

(vii) he shall report in such manner as may be directed by the District Magistrate, the births and deaths which have occurred within the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Anchal Panchayat;

(viii) he shall give immediate information to the Gram Panchayat of the outbreak of any epidemic disease among men or cattle within the local limits of its jurisdiction;

(ix) he shall supply any local information which the District or Subdivisional Magistrate or any police officer may require;

(x) he shall obey the orders of the Anchal Panchayat in regard to keeping watch within its jurisdiction and in regard to other matters connected with his duties;

(xi) he shall give immediate information to the Anchal Panchayat of the commission of any offence under this Act or any rule made thereunder which has come to his knowledge and of any encroachment on, or obstruction to, any road or waterway within the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Anchal Panchayat, and of any damage to any property vested in the Anchal Panchayat or under its control;

(xii) he shall assist any person duly authorised by the Anchal Panchayat to collect any rate, tax, toll or fee;

(xiii) he shall serve such processes as may be prescribed upon persons resident within his jurisdiction, and

(xiv) he shall carry out such other duties as may be entrusted to him from time to time in accordance with this Act or any rule made thereunder.

(2) Every dafadar shall exercise all the powers conferred on a chowkidar under subsection (1) and shall perform such duties as may
Whenever a dafadar or a chowkidar arrests any person under section 53, he shall forthwith take the person so arrested to the police-station having jurisdiction over the area in which the arrest is made:

Provided that if the arrest is made at night such person shall be so taken, as soon as convenient, on the following morning.

CHAPTER VIII.
Finance and Taxation.

55. (1) For every Anchal Panchayat, there shall be constituted an Anchal Panchayat Fund and there shall be placed to the credit thereof:

(a) any contribution made by the State Government for general or any special purpose;
(b) any tax, toll, fee, rate or other imposition levied and collected under this Act;
(c) any sum contributed by the District Board or any other local authority;
(d) any sum raised as loan or received as gifts or contributions; and income from endowments or trusts made in favour of the Anchal Panchayat.

Provided that where an endowment or trust is made in favour of two or more Anchal Panchayats, the income from such endowments or trusts shall be apportioned between the Anchal Panchayats concerned by the State Government, as far as practicable, in the manner indicated in the instrument creating such endowment or trust, and in the absence of any such indication in the instrument creating the endowment or trust, in such manner as the State Government may think fit;

(e) all fines and penalties imposed under this Act or the rules made thereunder; and

(f) all other sums received by or on behalf of the Anchal Panchayat under this Act or otherwise.

(2) Every Anchal Panchayat shall set apart and apply annually out of the Anchal Panchayat Fund:

(a) first, such sum as may be required to meet the cost of its (Part I.—Chapter VIII.—Finance and Taxation.—

—Section 56.)

56. (1) For every Gram Panchayat there shall be constituted a Gram Panchayat Fund to which shall be credited—

(a) the sum or sums assigned to the fund under clause (d) of sub-section (2) of section 55;

(b) any gifts or contributions received;

(c) income from endowments and trusts made in favour, or enterprises under the management, of the Gram Panchayat;

Provided that where an endowment or trust is made in favour of two or more Gram Panchayats within the jurisdiction of the same Anchal Panchayat, the income from such endowment or trust shall be apportioned between the Gram Panchayats concerned by the Anchal Panchayat, as far as practicable, in the manner indicated in the instrument creating such endowment or trust, and in the absence of any such indication in the instrument creating such endowment or trust, in such manner as the Anchal Panchayat may think fit:

The word "and" was omitted by 5, 2(i) of the West Bengal Panchayat (Amendment) Act, 1978 (West B. Act XIX of 1978).

The word "in" was substituted for the word "indicated" by s. 2(ii), ibid.

The word "as", was substituted for the word "in" by s.
Provided further that when an endowment or trust has been made in favour of two or more Gram Panchayats not within the jurisdiction of the same Anchal Panchayat, the income from such endowment or trust shall be apportioned between the Gram Panchayats concerned by the prescribed authority, as far as practicable, in the manner indicated in the instrument creating such endowment or trust, and in the absence of any such indication in the instrument creating such endowment or trust, in such manner as the prescribed authority may think fit:

(d) all sums received by or on behalf of the Gram Sabha or Gram Panchayat under this Act or otherwise.

(2) It shall be the duty of every Gram Panchayat to supply, subject to the approval of the prescribed authority, such funds as may be required by the Gram Sabha concerned, to meet the charges incurred by the Gram Sabha in carrying out its duties under this Act.

57. (1) Subject to such rules, rates and scales as may be prescribed by the State Government in this behalf, an Anchal Panchayat shall impose yearly—

(a) on lands and buildings within the local limits of its jurisdiction, a tax not exceeding two per centum of the annual value of such lands and buildings determined in the prescribed manner to be paid by the owners or occupiers thereof;

(b) on professions, trades, callings and employments carried on or held within the local limits of its jurisdiction, a tax on the basis of the total annual income accrued from such professions, trades, callings and employments, subject in a maximum of two hundred and fifty rupees per annum in respect of any one person.

(2) Subject to such rules and such maximum rates or scales as may be prescribed by the State Government, an Anchal Panchayat may levy the following fees and rates:

(a) fees on the registration of vehicles;

(b) fees on plaints, petitions and other processes in suits and cases instituted before a Nyaya Panchayat concerned;

(2) All properties vested in the Gram Panchayat or Anchal Panchayat, as the case may be, shall, during the period of inability referred to in subsection (1), vest in such authority, person or persons subject to such conditions as the prescribed authority may direct.

Appointment of Officers

69. The State Government may appoint such officers as it may think necessary for the purpose of inspecting or superintending the duty of all or any of the Panchayats constituted under this Act.

PART II.

CHAPTER XI. Nyaya Panchayats.

(1) Every Anchal Panchayat established under this Act shall, if so directed by the State Government by notification to do so, constitute a Nyaya Panchayat, consisting of five members, to be called Vicharaks, elected by it from amongst the members of the Gram Sabhas within its jurisdiction, according to prescribed rules and approved by the prescribed authority, for the trial of—

(a) the offences specified in Schedule III or a case transferred to the Nyaya Panchayat under sub-section (2) or section 71, and

(b) all or any of the classes of civil suits specified in section 50:

Provided that no member of a Gram Sabha shall be elected to be a member of a Nyaya Panchayat if he has any of the disqualifications mentioned in section 15.

Provided further that where the number of Gram Sabhas comprised in an Anchal Panchayat is

(i) five, one Vicharak shall be elected from each Gram Sabha,

(ii) more than five, the Gram Sabhas shall be divided into five groups consisting of one or more of the Gram Sabhas as may be determined and specified in this behalf by the Anchal Panchayat and one Vicharak shall be elected from each group, and

(iii) less than five, one Vicharak shall be elected from each Gram Sabha and the deficiency in the membership of the Nyaya Panchayat shall be filled up by co-option from such Gram Sabha or Gram Sabhas as may be determined and specified in this behalf by the Anchal Panchayat.

This second proviso was substituted for the original second proviso by s. 10(a) of the T.A. 1957.
(2) When a person who is a member or an Anchal Panchayal or a Gram Panchayat is elected to a Nyaya Panchayat under sub-section (3), he shall cease to be a member of the Anchal Panchayat or the Gram Panchayat concerned, with effect from the date on which the Nyaya Panchayat is notified under sub-section (3), and the vacancy caused thereby shall be filled in the manner laid down in section 21 or section 28, as the case may be.

(3) Every Nyaya Panchayat constituted under sub-section (1) shall be notified in the Official Gazette, or in such other manner as may be prescribed, and shall come into office with effect from the date specified in the said notification.

(4) Every Nyaya Panchayat shall elect at such time and in such manner as may be prescribed one of its members to be called Pradhan Vicharak to preside over its sittings and in the absence of the Pradhan Vicharak, the Vicharaks present at the sitting of the Nyaya Panchayat shall elect one of them to be the Pradhan Vicharak for the purpose of that sitting.

(5) The term of office of a member of a Nyaya Panchayat shall be four years from the date of the notification mentioned in sub-section (3):

Provided that members of a Nyaya Panchayat shall continue in office until the election of the members of the Nyaya Panchayat by the newly constituted Anchal Panchayat after a general election.

(6) No suit, case or other proceeding pending before a Nyaya Panchayat shall be tried by such Nyaya Panchayat unless at least three members of the Nyaya Panchayat are present during such trial.

(7) The Secretary to the Anchal Panchayat shall act as the Secretary to the Nyaya Panchayat for the purpose of keeping the records of its proceedings and decisions, and doing such other duties as may be prescribed.

(8) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, a Nyaya Panchayat constituted under section 70 shall have jurisdiction, within the local limits of the Anchal Panchayat constituting such Nyaya Panchayat to try all offences specified in Schedule III; and, with effect from the date specified in the notification referred to in sub-section (3) of section 70, no other court shall, except as otherwise provided in this Act, take cognizance of any case triable by a Nyaya Panchayat:

These words within square brackets were substituted for the words "unless a majority of the members of the Nyaya Panchayat is present during such trial" by s. 10(b).
Provided that nothing in this Act shall take away the jurisdiction of any court to try a case which a Nyaya Panchayat is prohibited by section 97 from trying or which should be, in the opinion of the Nyaya Panchayat or of the District Magistrate or the Subdivisional Magistrate exercising the power conferred by sub-section (1) of section 98, tried in an ordinary court.

(2) A Nyaya Panchayat may try any offence specified in Schedule III, Part B, of the case is transferred to it by a District Magistrate, Subdivisional Magistrate or any other Magistrate empowered to receive petitions under section 190 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898: Provided as follows:

(a) a Magistrate before whom a complaint of an offence mentioned in Schedule III, Part A, cognizable by a Nyaya Panchayat is made shall transfer the complaint to the Nyaya Panchayat which is competent to try the offence;

(b) the District Magistrate or Subdivisional Magistrate may transfer any case from one Nyaya Panchayat to another or to any other court subordinate to him if in the interest of justice he considers it necessary to do so;

(c) the District Magistrate or Subdivisional Magistrate may, with the consent of the parties, transfer any case cognizable by a Nyaya Panchayat, if the place of residence of the complainant is situated within the limits of an Anchal Panchayat for which there is no Nyaya Panchayat to any Nyaya Panchayat situated at a distance from such place of residence convenient, in the opinion of the Magistrate, for the parties and witnesses.

(3) Every offence triable by a Nyaya Panchayat shall ordinarily be tried by the Nyaya Panchayat within the local limits of whose jurisdiction it was committed.

(4) The offence of theft triable by a Nyaya Panchayat or any offence which includes theft or the possession of stolen property, triable by a Nyaya Panchayat, may be tried by the Nyaya Panchayat within the local limits of whose jurisdiction such offence was committed or the property stolen was possessed by the thief or by any person who received or retained the same knowing or having reason to believe it to be stolen.

(5) An offence triable by a Nyaya Panchayat, committed whilst the offender is in the course or performing a journey may be tried by the Nyaya Panchayat through or into the local limits of whose jurisdiction the offender, or the person against whom, or the thing in respect of which, the offence was committed, resided.
(6) When it is uncertain in which of several areas an offence was committed, or where an offence is committed partly in one local area and partly in another, or where an offence is a continuing one and continues to be committed in more local areas than one, or where it consists of several acts done in different local areas, it may be tried by a Nyaya Panchayat having jurisdiction over any such local areas.

(7) (a) Whenever a question arises as to which of two or more Nyaya Panchayats subordinate to the same Subdivisional Magistrate ought to try any offence, it shall be decided by the Subdivisional Magistrate.

(b) Whenever a question arises as to which of two or more Nyaya Panchayats subordinate to the same Subdivisional Magistrate, but subordinate to the same District Magistrate, ought to try any offence, it shall be decided by the District Magistrate.

(c) Where two or more Nyaya Panchayats subordinate to the same District Magistrate have taken cognizance of the same offence, the District Magistrate within the local limits of whose jurisdiction the proceedings were first commenced may direct the trial of such offender to be held in any Nyaya Panchayat subordinate to him and if he so decides all other proceedings against such person in respect of such offence shall be discontinued.

72. A case before a Nyaya Panchayat may be instituted by petition. How a case may be made orally or in writing is the Secretary of the Ancnal Panchayat or the member of the Nyaya Panchayat. If the petition is made orally, the Secretary or the member, as the case may be, shall draw up a statement recording the name of the petitioner, the name of the person against whom the petition is made, the nature of the offence and such other particulars, if any, as may be prescribed, and the signature or the thumb impression of the petitioner shall be taken thereon. The Secretary or the member, as the case may be, shall, thereafter direct the petitioner to appear before the Nyaya Panchayat on a particular date.

73. (1) If upon the face or the petition, or on examining the petitioner, the Nyaya Panchayat is of opinion that the petition is frivolous, vexatious or unmeritorious, it shall dismiss the case by an order in writing.

(2) If at any time it appears to the Nyaya Panchayat—

(a) that it has no jurisdiction to try the case;

(b) that the offence is one for which the sentence which it is competent to pass would be inadequate; or

(c) that the case is one which should not be tried by it,

it shall direct the petitioner by an order in writing to the court which would have had jurisdiction to try the offence but for the provisions of
74. If in any case before a Nyaya Panchayat, the petitioner fails to appear on the day fixed, or if in the opinion of the Nyaya Panchayat, it shows negligence in prosecuting his case, the Nyaya Panchayat may dismiss the case for default, and such order of dismissal shall operate as an acquittal.

75. (1) If the petition be not dismissed, the Nyaya Panchayat shall, subject to the provisions of section 102, by summons require the accused to appear and answer the petition.

(2) If the accused fails to appear or cannot be found, the Nyaya Panchayat shall report the fact to the nearest Magistrate, who would have had jurisdiction to try the offence but for the provisions of this Act, who may issue a warrant for the arrest of the accused and when arrested may forward him for trial to the Nyaya Panchayat or release him on bail to appear before it.

(3) The Nyaya Panchayat shall, if possible, try the case on the day on which the accused appears or is brought before it, but if that is not possible, the Nyaya Panchayat shall release him on his executing a bond for a sum not exceeding twenty-five rupees to appear before it on any subsequent day or days to which the trial may be adjourned.

Provided that if the accused fails or refuses to execute a bond, the Nyaya Panchayat shall, instead of releasing him, send him back under custody to the Magistrate by whom such accused was arrested and thereupon such Magistrate shall, notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (6) of section 71, have cognizance of the complaint made before the Nyaya Panchayat and shall try such accused person in the same manner and under the same procedure as if the complaint were made before him.

76. Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, the Nyaya Panchayat may allow the parties to compound any offence triable by it.

77. Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, there shall be no appeal by a convicted person in any case tried by a Nyaya Panchayat:

Provided that the District Magistrate or Subdivisional Magistrate within the local limits of whose jurisdiction the Nyaya Panchayat is situate, if satisfied that failure of justice has occurred, may, or of his own motion, or on the application of any of the parties concerned, made within thirty days from the date of the order of the Nyaya Panchayat, cancel or modify any order of conviction or of compensation made by a Nyaya Panchayat or direct the retrial of any case by a court of competent jurisdiction subordinate to him, notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (6) of section 71.
An XLV of

The IVW Bengal Panchayat Act, 1957.

(Chapter XI. Nyaya Panchayat Act) 1 of 1957)

78. (1) A Nyaya Panchayat shall, after hearing the parties and after considering the evidence adduced by the parties, record its decision in writing, and may sentence any offender convicted by it to pay a fine not exceeding fifty rupees:

Provided that if the members of the Nyaya Panchayat present during the trial of a case fail to come to a unanimous decision, the decision of the majority of such members shall be the decision of the Nyaya Panchayat:

Provided further that in the case of equality of votes of the members of a Nyaya Panchayat present during the trial of a case, the Pradhan Vicharak or the person who is elected as Pradhan Vicharak for that sitting, shall have a second or casting vote and the decision of the Nyaya Panchayat shall be in accordance with such second or casting vote.

(2) No sentence of imprisonment, simple or rigorous, whether substantive or in default of payment of fine shall be inflicted by any Nyaya Panchayat.

(3) When a Nyaya Panchayat imposes a fine under sub-section (1), it may, when passing the order, direct that the whole or any part of the fine recovered shall be applied in payment of compensation for any loss or injury caused by the offence.

(4) If a Nyaya Panchayat is satisfied that a complaint made before it or transferred to it for trial is false, vexatious or frivolous, it may order the complainant to pay to the accused, such compensation not exceeding twenty-five rupees, as it thinks fit.

(5) If such fine or compensation is not paid or realised within thirty days of the passing of the sentence or order or within such further time as the Nyaya Panchayat may allow, the Nyaya Panchayat shall record and order declaring the amount of fine imposed or compensation awarded and that it has not been paid, and shall forward the same to the nearest Magistrate, who would have had jurisdiction to try the case but for the provisions of this Act, who shall:

(a) proceed to execute the order as if it were an order passed by himself, or

(b) in default of payment, sentence the accused to imprisonment in accordance with Chapter III of the Indian Penal Code, notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (2) of this section;

Provided that, notwithstanding anything contained in the Indian Penal Code:

(a) the fine imposed or compensation awarded by a Nyaya Panchayat shall not be realised from any person who
79. When any person is convicted by a Nyaya Panchayat and no previous conviction is proved against him if it appears to the Nyaya Panchayat that regard being had to the age, character and antecedents of the offender and to the circumstances in which the offence was committed, it is expedient—

(a) that the offender should be released after due admonition, the Nyaya Panchayat may, instead of sentencing him to any punishment, release him after due admonition; or

(b) that the offender should be released on probation of good conduct, the Nyaya Panchayat may, notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, instead of sentencing him at once to any punishment, direct that he be released on his executing a bond for a sum not exceeding fifty rupees to appear and receive sentence when called upon during such period (not exceeding one year) as he may direct, and in the meantime to keep the peace and be of good behaviour.

80. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Bengal, Agra X of 1887 and Assam Civil Courts Act, 1887, the Provincial Small Cause Courts Act, 1887, and the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, and subject to the provisions of sections 81 and 82, a Nyaya Panchayat shall have, within the local limits of the Anchal Panchayat constituting such Nyaya Panchayat, jurisdiction to try the following classes of suits when the value of the suit does not exceed two hundred rupees, namely:

(a) suits for money due on contracts;

(b) suits for the recovery of movable property or the value of such property;

(c) suits for compensation for wrongfully taking or injuring movable property; and

(d) suits for damages by culpa-trespass.

(2) No other court shall have jurisdiction to try any suit of the classes mentioned in sub-section (1):

Provided that nothing in this Act shall take away the jurisdiction of any court to try a suit which a Nyaya Panchayat is prohibited by section 97 from trying or which should be, in the opinion of the Nyaya Panchayat or of the District Judge exercising the power conferred by sub-section...
81. No suit shall lie in any Nyaya Panchayat—Suits not to be filed

85. (1) If at any time the Nyaya Panchayat is of opinion that the suit is barred by limitation, it shall dismiss the suit by an order in writing.

(2) If at any time it appears to the Nyaya Panchayat that it has no jurisdiction to entertain the suit, it shall direct the petitioner to the court which would have had jurisdiction to try the suit but for the provisions of this Act.

(3) Where it is proved to the satisfaction of the Nyaya Panchayat that a suit has been adjusted wholly or in part by any lawful agreement or compromise or where the defendant satisfies the plaintiff in respect of the whole or any part of the subject matter of the suit, the Nyaya Panchayat shall pass a decree in accordance therewith so far as it relates to the suit:

Provided that where the Nyaya Panchayat refuses to pass a decree in accordance with the agreement or compromise, it shall record its reasons in writing for so doing.

86. If in any suit before a Nyaya Panchayat the plaintiff fails to appear on the day fixed, or if in the opinion of the Panchayat, he shows negligence in prosecuting his suit, it may dismiss the suit for default: Provided that a Nyaya Panchayat may restore a suit dismissed for default, if within thirty days from the date of such dismissal the plaintiff satisfies the Nyaya Panchayat that he was prevented by sufficient cause from appearing at the time when the suit was called on for hearing.

87. If on receiving the plaint the Nyaya Panchayat is satisfied that the trial of the suit may proceed with, it shall, by summons require the defendant to appear and answer the suit either orally or in writing.

88. If the defendant fails to appear, and the Nyaya Panchayat is satisfied that the summons was duly served, it may decide the suit ex parte:

Provided that any defendant against whom a suit has been decided ex parte may, within thirty days from the date of executing any process for enforcement of the decision, apply, orally or in writing, to the Nyaya Panchayat to set aside the order; and the Nyaya Panchayat, if satisfied that the summons was not duly served on the defendant, or that the defendant was prevented from appearing at the time when the suit was called on for hearing by any sufficient cause, shall set aside the decision and shall appoint a day for proceeding with the suit.

89. No decision or order of a Nyaya Panchayat shall be set aside under the proviso to section 86 or under the proviso to section 88 unless notice in writing has been served by the Nyaya Panchayat on the opposite party.
90. (1) Subject to the provisions of clauses (3) and (4) of section 81, the Nyaya Panchayat shall add as parties to a suit any person whose presence as party it considers necessary for a proper decision thereof, and shall enter the names of such parties in the register of suits, and the suit shall be tried as between the parties whose names are entered in the said register:

Provided that when any party is added, notice shall be given to him and he shall be given an opportunity of appearing before the trial of the suit is proceeded with.

(2) In all cases where a new party appears under the provision to sub-section (1) during the trial of a suit, he may require that the trial shall begin de novo.

91. (1) When the parties or their agents have been heard and the evidence on both sides considered, the Nyaya Panchayat shall, by written order, pass such decree as may seem just, equitable and according to good conscience, stating in the decree the amounts of prescribed Fees and the amount, if any paid to witnesses under sub-section (3) of section 101, and the persons by whom such amounts are payable:

Provided that if the members of the Nyaya Panchayat present during the trial of a suit fail to come to a unanimous decision, the decision of the majority of such members shall be the decision of the Nyaya Panchayat:

Provided further that in the case of equality of votes of the members of a Nyaya Panchayat present during the trial of suit, the Pradhan Vicharak, or the person who is elected as Pradhan Vicharak for that sitting, shall have a second or casting vote and the decision of the Nyaya Panchayat shall be in accordance with such second or casting vote.

(2) Subject to such conditions and limitations as may be prescribed, and to the provisions of any law for the time being in force, the costs of and incident to all suits shall be in the discretion of the Nyaya Panchayat, and the Nyaya Panchayat shall have full power to determine by whom and to what extent such costs are to be paid, and to give all necessary directions for the purposes aforesaid:

Provided that where a Nyaya Panchayat directs that the successful party shall not get the costs of the suit, it shall state its reasons in writing.

(3) If a Nyaya Panchayat is satisfied that a suit instituted before it is false, vexatious, or frivolous, it may direct the plaintiff, by an order in writing, to pay to the defendant such compensation, not exceeding twenty-five rupees, as it may think fit.

92. A Nyaya Panchayat in ordering the payment of a sum of money or the delivery of any movable property may direct that the money be paid, or (if movable property) be brought to Transitory Provisions.

118. If, on the repeal under section 4, of the Bengal Village Self-Government Act, 1919, or the Bihar Panchayat Raj Act, 1947, within any territorial limits, any case or suit pending before any bench, Court or Gram Cutcherry constituted under any of those Acts cannot be continued before such bench, Court or Gram Cutcherry on account of its ceasing to have jurisdiction, then such case or suit shall, upon such repeal, stand transferred to the civil or criminal Court of the lowest grade competent to try the same.

118A. (1) Where by reason of an order of a competent court setting aside, or prohibiting the holding of, any election held or to be held under the provisions of section 11, section 26 or section 27, or otherwise delaying the constitution of an Anchal Panchayat, the first constitution of any Anchal Panchayat after its establishment under section 25 cannot be completed within such time as the prescribed authority considers to be reasonable, the prescribed authority may, with the previous approval of the State Government, appoint an Administrator to exercise or perform, in such manner and subject to such conditions as the prescribed authority may direct, the powers, duties or functions conferred or imposed on such Anchal Panchayat by or under the provisions of this Act or any other Act or any rule made under this Act within the territorial limits of such Anchal Panchayat.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in section 4, upon the appointment of an Administrator under sub-section (1) in respect of any Anchal Panchayat—

(a) the enactments specified in column 3 of Schedule I shall stand repealed or amended within the territorial limits of such Anchal Panchayat to the extent and in the manner specified in column 4 thereof;

Section 118A was inserted by s. 2 of the West Bengal Panchayat (Amendment) Act, 1959 (West Bengal Act XV of 1959).
(b) any Panchayat appointed under the Village Chaukidari Act, 1870, union committee constituted under the Bengal Local Self-Government Act of 1885, union board established under the Bengal Village Self-Government Act, 1919, or Gram Panchayat established under the Bihar Panchayat Raj Act, 1947, having jurisdiction within the territorial limits of such Anchal Panchayat shall cease to function within such limits;

and

(c) all such properties, funds and other assets and all such rights and liabilities of such Panchayat, union committee, union board or Gram Panchayat, as the case may be, as are relatable to the area within the territorial limits of such Anchal Panchayat in accordance with the allocation determined by the prescribed authority by an order made in this behalf shall, subject to such conditions as the prescribed authority may direct, vest in the Administrator.

(3) The appointment of any Administrator under sub-section (1) in respect of any Anchal Panchayat shall terminate immediately on the completion of the constitution of such Anchal Panchayat and the properties, funds, assets, rights and liabilities vested in the Administrator under clause (c) of sub-section (2) shall thereupon stand transferred to and vest in such Anchal Panchayat.

(4) If the first constitution of any Gram Panchayat for a Gram Sabha comprised in an Anchal Panchayat in respect of which an Administrator has been appointed under sub-section (1) has not been completed by reason of an order of a competent Court then, during such period as the constitution of such Gram Panchayat cannot be completed,

(a) the Administrator appointed under sub-section (1) shall, in such manner and subject to such conditions as the prescribed authority may direct, also exercise or perform the powers, duties or functions conferred or imposed on such Gram Panchayat by or under the provisions of this Act or any other Act or any rule made under this Act within the area of the Gram Sabha concerned; and

(b) the properties to be vested in such Gram Panchayat under section 61 shall, subject to such conditions as the prescribed authority may direct, be vested in the Administrator.

Explanation: For the purposes of this section, the constitution of an Anchal Panchayat shall be deemed to be completed on the election of its Pradhan and Upa-
Pradhan under section 27, and the constitution of a Gram Panchayat shall be deemed to be completed on the election of its AHW and Upa-
AHW under the Act.
Removal of Difficulty.

119. If in establishing, constituting or in the working of, an Anchal Panchayat or a Gram Panchayat in any local area, any dispute or difficulty arises in the interpretation of any provision of this Act, or any rule made thereunder or any matter arising out of or relating to such interpretation or any matter not provided in the Act, the State Government may, by order, decide the same and authorise any matter or thing to be done which appears to it to be necessary for the purpose of removing such difficulty, and the decision of the State Government shall be final.

CHAPTER XIII.

Power to make Rules,

120. (1) The State Government may, after previous publication, make Rules, for carrying out the purposes of this Act.
(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:
