Chapter IV.—[Kolkata Metropolitan Development Authority.— Sections 23-25.]

23. (1) The [Kolkata] Metropolitan Development Authority may constitute as many committees, consisting wholly of members of such Authority or wholly of other persons or partly of members of such Authority and partly of other persons and for such purpose or purposes, as it may think fit.

(2) A committee constituted under this section shall meet at such place and at such time, and shall observe such rules of procedure in regard to the transaction of business at its meetings, as may be determined by regulations made in this behalf.

(3) The members of a committee, other than the members of the [Kolkata] Metropolitan Development Authority, shall be paid such fees and allowances for attending its meetings and for attending to any other work of the [Kolkata] Metropolitan Development Authority as may be determined by regulations made in this behalf.

24. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, the [Kolkata] Metropolitan Development Authority may give such directions with regard to the implementation of any development project, as it may think fit, to an authority to which payment of any money from its fund has been made under this Act.

(2) The [Kolkata] Metropolitan Development Authority shall so exercise the powers or supervision referred to under this Act as may be necessary to ensure that each development project is executed in the interest of the overall development or the [Kolkata] Metropolitan Area and in accordance with the approved development plan.

25. (1) Where the [Kolkata] Metropolitan Development Authority is satisfied that any direction given by it under sub-section (1) of section 24 with regard to any development project has not been carried out by the authority referred to therein or if any such authority is unable to implement any scheme undertaken by it for the development of any part of the [Kolkata] Metropolitan Area, the [Kolkata] Metropolitan Development Authority may itself undertake the works and incur any expenditure for the execution of such development projects or implementation of such schemes, as the case may be.

(2) The [Kolkata] Metropolitan Development Authority may also undertake any works in the [Kolkata] Metropolitan Area as may be directed by the State Government and may incur such expenditure as may be necessary for the execution of such work.

(Chapter IV.—[Kolkata] Metropolitan Development Authorities.— Sections 26, 27.)

(3) Where any work is undertaken by the [Kolkata] Metropolitan Development Authority under sub-section (1), it shall be deemed to be, for the purposes of any law for the time being in force, the authority referred to in sub-section (1) of section 24.

(4) The [Kolkata] Metropolitan Development Authority may, for the purpose or carrying out the powers conferred by sub-sections (1) and (2), undertake survey of any area within the [Kolkata] Metropolitan Area and for that purpose it shall be lawful for any officer of the [Kolkata] Metropolitan Development Authority—

(a) to enter in or upon any land and to take level of such land;
(b) to dig or bore into the sub-soil;
(c) to mark levels and boundaries by placing marks and cutting trends;
(d) where otherwise the survey cannot be completed and levels taken and boundaries marked, to cut down and clear away any part of any standing crop, fence or jungle;

Provided that before entering upon any land the [Kolkata] Metropolitan Development Authority shall give notice of its intention to do so in such manner as may be specified in the regulations made under this Act,

Delegation 26. The [Kolkata] Metropolitan Development Authority may, by order in writing and subject to such conditions as it may think fit to impose, delegate any of its powers, duties and functions under this Act or any other Act or any rule or regulation made thereunder to the Chairman, Vice-Chairman, Chief Executive Officer, Secretary or any other officer appointed under this Act.

27. The [Kolkata] Improvement Act, 1911, the Howrah Improvement Act, 1956, and the [Kolkata] Metropolitan Water and Sewerage Authority Act, 1966, shall stand amended to the extent and in the manner specified in the Second Schedule to this Act.

CHAPTER V
Preparation of present Land Use Map

28. Every Planning Authority or Development Authority shall, within one year after its constitution or within such time as the State Government from time to time, extend, prepare a present Land Use Map (hereinafter called the Map) and a Land Register (hereinafter called the Register) in such form as the concerned Authority may think fit indicating the present use of lands in the Planning Area:

Provided that the concerned Authority may prepare the Map and the Register in respect of any portion of the Planning Area but the Map or Maps with Register in respect of the entire Planning Area shall be completed within the said period of one year or within such time as the State Government may from time to time extend.

Explanation.—The predominant use to which the land is put on the date of preparation of the Map shall be considered to be the present land use by the Planning Authority or the Development Authority.

29. (1) After the preparation of the Map and the Register, the Planning Notice or the Authority or the Development Authority shall publish a public notice of the Map preparation of the Map and the Register and of the place or places where the copies of the same may be inspected, inviting objections in writing from any person with respect to the Map and the Register within thirty days of the publication of such notice.

(2) After the expiry of the period of thirty days mentioned in sub-section (1), an officer designated by the Planning Authority or the Development Authority shall, after allowing a reasonable opportunity of hearing to objects, if any, submit a report to the concerned authority.

(3) The concerned authority shall consider the report submitted under sub-section (2) and may make such modifications in the Map or the Register or both as it considers proper and adopt the Map and the Register with such modifications, if any.

(4) Where a local authority or a statutory authority has been declared as the Planning Authority or the Development Authority for any area and it has prepared a similar Map or Register in respect of an area before the application of this Act to that area, the Map or the Register already prepared shall be deemed to be a Map or a Register, as the case may be, under section 28.

(5) As soon as may be, after the adoption of the Map and the Register under sub-section (3), the Planning Authority or the Development Authority, as the case may be, shall publish a public notice of such adoption of the Map and the Register and the place or places where copies of the same may be inspected and shall submit copies of the Map and the Register to the State Government.
CHAPTER VI
Preparation of (Land Use and Development Control Plans) and Procedure for their Statutory Approval

Section 30. Chapter VI.—Preparation of (Land Use and Development Control Plans) and Procedure for their Statutory Approval

(6) A copy of such notice shall also be published in the Official Gazette. Such publication in the Official Gazette in respect of the Map and the Register shall be conclusive evidence that the Map and the Register have been duly prepared and adopted.

311. (1) If no Map or Register is prepared by the Planning Authority or the Development Authority within the period referred to in section 28 or if any time the State Government is satisfied that the Planning Authority or the Development Authority is not taking necessary steps to prepare the Map and the Register, the State Government may direct any of its officers to prepare or cause to be prepared the Map and the Register.

(2) After preparation of the Map and the Register, the said officer shall submit the same to the State Government and the State Government shall follow the procedure laid down in section 29 as if it were the authority concerned.

(3) Any expenses incurred under this section in connection with the preparation and the publication of the Map and the Register in respect of a Planning Area shall be paid by the concerned authority.

CHAPTER VI
Preparation of (Land Use and Development Control Plans) and Procedure for their Statutory Approval

[Land Use 31. (1) A Planning Authority or Development Authority shall, within two years of the declaration of a Planning Area, prepare a plan (hereinafter plan) for the Land Use and Development Control Plan for the Planning Area and forward a copy thereof to the State Government:

Provided that the concerned authority may prepare the plan in respect of any portion of the Planning Area, but the plan in respect of that portion of Planning Area shall be completed within a period of three years or within such time as the State Government may from time to time extend.]
(Chapter 17. — Preparation of Land Use and Development Control Plans and Procedure for their Statutory Approval. — See ion it.)

(2) The [Land Use and Development Control Plan] in any area shall be a written statement,
   (a) formulating the policy and the general proposals including maps of the Planning Authority or the Development Authority in respect of the development and general use of land in that area including measures for the improvement of the physical environment;
   (b) stating relationship between these proposals and general proposals for the development and general use of land in neighbouring areas which may be expected to affect that area; and
   (c) containing such other matters as may be prescribed or directed by the State Government.

(3) A [Land Use and Development Control Plan] in any area shall contain or be accompanied by such maps, diagrams, illustrations and descriptive matter as the Planning Authority or the Development Authority thinks appropriate for the purpose of explaining or illustrating the proposals in the plan and such diagrams, illustrations and descriptive matter shall be (rented as parts of the plan.

32. Preparation of Detailed Development Plan.—Omitted by s. 4(c) of the West Bengal Town and Country Planning and Development Act, 1994 (West Bengal Act XXVI of 1994).

33. If any local or sui opinion authority has been declared a Planning or a Development Authority for a Planning Area and the said authority has prepared a Land Use and Development Control Plan similar to that contemplated in this Act, for the Planning Area before this Act has been brought into force in the said area, then the Land Use and Development Control Plan already prepared may be deemed to be a Land Use and Development Control Plan under section 31 or section 32 of this Act, according to the nature of the plan provided it includes the lectures of a plan contemplated in this Act.
34. (J) Where by virtue of the provisions of this Act, a [Land Use and Development Control Plan] is to be prepared,—

(a) if within the period prescribed or within such period which the State Government may extend, no [Land Use and Development Control Plan] has been prepared; or

(b) if at any time the State Government is satisfied that the Planning Authority or the Development Authority is not taking steps necessary to prepare such a [Land Use and Development Control Plan] within that period, the State Government may direct any office of the State Government to prepare the [Land Use and Development Control Plan],

(2) After the preparation of the [Land Use and Development Control Plan], the said officer shall submit the [Land Use and Development Control Plan] to the State Government and he shall follow the procedure and exercise the powers of the Planning Authority or the Development Authority, as the case may be.

(II) Any expenses incurred under this section in connection with the preparation and publication of the [Land Use and Development Control Plan] to the Planning Area of any Planning Authority or Development Authority shall be paid by the concerned authority.

35. As soon as may be after the [Land Use and Development Control Plan] has been submitted to the State Government, but not later than the time prescribed, the State Government shall direct the Planning Authority or the Development Authority to make such modifications in the [Land Use and Development Control Plan] as the State Government deems necessary and the concerned authority shall make the modifications.
Public Notice

(1) After any modifications, if any, the Planning Authority or the preparatory Development Authority shall publish a public notice in the Official Gazette of the Land and in one or more local newspapers, of the preparation of the Land Use and Development Control Plan] and the place or places where copies of the said Control Plan may be inspected, inviting objections in writing from any person with respect to the said Plan within a period of sixty days from the date of publication of the public notice in the Official Gazette or from the date of publication of the public notice in the newspaper, whichever is later.

(2) The notice of preparation or the Land Use and Development Control Plan] as provided under the preceding subsection shall, notwithstanding anything contained in the Land Acquisition Act, 1894, be deemed to be a declaration duly made under section 4 of the said Act.

(3) After the expiry of the period mentioned in sub-section (1), the concerned authority shall appoint a Committee consisting of three of its members, to consider the objections filed under sub-section (1) and submit a report within such time as the Planning Authority or the Development Authority may fix in this behalf.

(4) The Committee so appointed shall have power to invite any other person, and such a person shall have a right to take part in the discussions of the Committee relevant to that purpose but shall not have a right to vote at a meeting and shall not be a member for any other purpose.

(5) The Committee so appointed shall have power to invite any other person, and such a person shall have a right to take part in the discussions of the Committee relevant to that purpose but shall not have a right to vote at a meeting and shall not be a member for any other purpose.

(6) A person as aforesaid may request the Committee to consider the report and may make such modifications in the Land Use and Development Control Plan] as it considers proper, and shall submit the Land Use and Development Control Plan] with or without modifications together with the report of the Committee to the State Government.

Chap. VII—Control of Development and Use of Land-Sections 47-49.)

The West Bengal Town and Country (Planning and Development) Act, 1976

(1) The State Government on receipt of the proposals for development together with the objections of the concerned authority, shall either approve the proposals without modifications or direct the concerned authority to make such modifications in the proposals as it considers necessary in the circumstances.

47. (1) Any applicant aggrieved by an order passed under section 46, or if no order is passed under that section, may appeal, within one month or the communication of the order, order to limit or after the expiry of the period of three months from the date of submitting the application, as the case may be, in the manner and accompanied by such fees as may be prescribed, to the State Government or any officer of the State Government appointed in this behalf.

(2) The State Government or the said officer, on receiving the appeal and after giving a reasonable opportunity of hearing to the applicant and the concerned authority, may dismiss the appeal or allow the appeal and pass order—

(a) granting permission unconditionally; or

(b) granting permission subject to such conditions as may be considered fit; or

(c) removing the conditions subject to which permission has been granted and imposing other conditions, if any, as may be considered fit.

48. (1) Every permission for any development granted under this Act shall remain in force for a period of one year from the date of such permission.

(2) The concerned authority may, on application made in this behalf before the expiry of the aforesaid period, extend the same for such times as it may think proper, but the total period shall in no case exceed three years.

(3) If any permission lapses under subsection (1) or (2), such lapse shall not bar any subsequent application for fresh permission under this Act.

49. (1) Where any person, interested in the land and aggrieved by an order in appeal under section 47 refusing permission or granting permission subject to conditions, claims—

(a) that the land has become incapable of reasonably beneficial use in the existing state, or

(b) that the land, in a case where permission to develop has been granted subject to conditions, cannot be rendered capable or reasonably beneficial use by carrying out the permitted development in accordance with the conditions, he may within three months and in the manner prescribed serve on the State Government a notice (hereinafter referred to as an acquisition notice) requiring the State Government to acquire his interest in the land and a copy of the notice shall at the same time be served on the authority concerned.

(2) After receiving the notice, the State Government shall appoint a person who shall, after reasonable opportunity of hearing to the person serving the acquisition notice and the authority concerned, submit his report thereon to the State Government.
Chapter VI: — Control of Development and Use of Land— Section 50.

(3) The State Government, on a consideration of the report—
fa) (i) if satisfied that the conditions specified in clause (a) or subsection (1) are not fulfilled, or (ii) if the order is appealed against in purSU'd tin tile ground of" no compliance with any provisions of this Act, rules or regulations that may be applicable, shall pass an order refusing to confirm the notice;
(b) if satisfied that the conditions specified in clause (a) or (b) of subsection (1) are fulfilled regarding the land or any part of the land, shall pass an order—
(i) confirming the notice, or
(ii) directing the concerned authority to grant such permission to develop the land or grant the permission subject to such conditions as will keep the land capable or reasonably beneficial use.

(4) If within the period of one year from the date on which an acquisition notice is served under sub-section (1), the State Government does not pass any order under sub-section (3), the notice shall be deemed to have been confirmed at the expiration of that period.

(5) Upon confirmation of the notice either under clause (b) of sub-section (3) or under sub-section (4), the State Government shall proceed to acquire the land or that part of any land regarding which the notice has been confirmed within one year of the confirmation.

50. (1) Where an order in appeal under section 47 refusing to grant permission or granting permission subject to conditions, relates to any of the following developments—
(a) re-erection of a building which has been destroyed or demolished so long as the cubic content of the original building is not exceeded by more than one-tenth;
(b) enlargement, improvement or other alteration of any building which was in existence on the date, the development plan relating to the

(Chapter VII.—Control of Development and Use of Land.—Section 50.)

(d) where any part of any building or other land which on the date of coming into operation for the first time of the development plan relating to the area is used for a particular purpose, the use for that purpose of any additional part of the building or land not exceeding one-tenth of the cubic content, of the part of the building used for that purpose on that day, or, as the case may be, one-twelfth of the area of the land so used on that date, the owner may, within the time and in the manner prescribed, claim upon the concerned authority, if he has not served an acquisition notice, or if the acquisition is not confirmed by the State Government under section 49 for an amount for such refusal or for grant of permission subject to conditions:

Provided that no amount shall be claimable if such refusal or grant of permission subject to conditions was based on any provision of any development plan.

(2) When a claim is received by such officer of the concerned authority as may be appointed in this behalf he shall, after giving an opportunity of hearing to the applicant, make a report to the concerned authority.

(3) (i) On receipt of the report referred to in sub-section (2), the concerned authority shall consider it and assess the amount and offer it to the owner,

(ii) The amount shall be equal to—

(a) where permission is refused, the difference between what would have been the value of the land if the permission had been granted and the value of the land in its existing state:

(b) where permission is granted subject to conditions, the difference between what would have been the value of the land if the permission had been granted unconditionally and what would be the value of the land with permission granted subject to conditions.

(4) If the owner does not accept the amount and gives notice, within thirty days from the date of offer, of his refusal to accept, the concerned authority shall refer the matter for the adjudication of the Court and the decision of the Court shall be final and binding on the owner and the authority.

Explanation.—The expression "Court" means a principal Civil Court of original jurisdiction, and includes any other Civil Court empowered by the State Government to perform the function of the Court under this Act within the pecuniary and local limits of its jurisdiction.
If it appears to the Planning Authority or the Development Authority that it is expedient, having regard to the [Land Use and Development Control Plan] prepared or under preparation or to be prepared and to any other material consideration, that any permission to develop land granted under this Act or any other law, should be revoked or modified, the Planning Authority or the Development Authority may, by order, revoke or modify the permission to such extent as appears to it to be necessary:

Provided that—

(a) where the permission relates to the carrying out of building or other operations, no such order shall—

(i) affect such of the operations as have been previously carried out;

(ii) be passed after these operations have been completed;

(b) where permission relates to a change of use of land, no such order shall be passed at any time after the change has taken place.

When permission is revoked or modified by an order made under subsection (1), if the owner claims from the Planning Authority or the Development Authority within thirty days from the date of revocation or modification, an amount for the expenditure incurred in carrying out the works after the grant of permission and in accordance with such permission, which has been rendered abortive by the revocation or modification, the Planning Authority or the Development Authority shall, after giving the owner a reasonable opportunity of hearing by an officer appointed by it in this behalf, and after considering the officer's report assess and offer such amount to the owner as it thinks fit.

If the owner does not accept the amount and gives notice, within thirty days from the date of offer, the Planning Authority or the Development Authority shall refer the matter for the adjudication of the Court and the decision of the Court shall be final and binding on the owner and the concerned authority.

Explanation.——The expression "Court" has the same meaning as in section 50.

52. (1) Any person who, whether at his own instance or at the instance of any other person, commences, undertakes or carries out development, or changes use of any land or building,—

(a) in contravention of any "Land Use and Development Control Plan";
(b) without obtaining a certificate regarding development charge under clause (a) of section 45;
(e) without permission as required under this Act;
(d) in contravention of any condition subject to which such permission has been granted;
(e) after the permission for development has been revoked under section 51; or
(f) in contravention of the permission which has been modified under section 51;

shall be punishable with simple imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months or with fine which may extend to five thousand rupees or with both, and in the case of a continuing offence with a further fine which may extend to five hundred rupees for every day during which the offence continues.

(2) Any person who continues to use or allows the use of any land or building in contravention of the provisions of a "Land Use and Development Control Plan" without having been allowed under section 44 or where the continuance of such use has been allowed under that section, continues such use after the period for which the use has been allowed or without complying with the terms and conditions under which the continuance of such use is allowed, shall be punishable with simple imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months or with a fine which may extend to two thousand rupees or with both, and in the case of a continuing offence with a further fine which may extend to two hundred and fifty rupees for every day during which the offence continues.

53. (1) Where any development or land has been or is being carried out as mentioned in section 52, the Planning Authority or the Development Authority shall serve on the owner a notice requiring him, within a period of one month after the service of the notice, to take such steps as may be specified in the notice, which shall be—

(a) in cases specified in clauses (a), (c) or (e) or sub-section (i) or section 52 to restore the land to its condition before the said development took place;

The words within the square brackets were substituted for the word "development plan" by s. 8(a) of the West Bengal Town and Country (Planning and Development) (Amendment) Act, 1994 (West Bengal Act XXVIII of 1994).

(b) in a case specified in clause (b) of sub-section (1) of section 52 to pay the development charge and such penalty, if any, as may be prescribed:

(c) in cases specified in clauses (d) or (f) of sub-section (1) of section 52 to secure compliance with the conditions or with the permission as modified.

(2) In particular, any such notice may, for the purpose aforesaid, require—

(a) the demolition or alteration of any building or works;

(b) the carrying out on land, of any building or other operations; or

(c) the discontinuance of any use of land:

Provided that in case the notice relates to the discontinuance of any use of land, the Planning Authority or the Development Authority shall serve a notice on the occupier also.

(3) Any person aggrieved by such notice may, within the period specified in the notice—

(a) apply for permission under section 46 for the retention on the land of any buildings or works or for the continuance of any use of the land, to which the notice relates: or

(b) apply to the concerned authority for reconsideration and withdrawal of the notice,

(4) (a) The notice shall be of no effect pending the final determination or withdrawal of the application.

(b) (i) The provisions of sections 45, 46 and 47 shall apply to such application with such modifications as may be necessary.

(ii) If permission is granted on an application made under clause (a) of sub-section (3), then such notice shall not take effect, or if such permission is granted for the retention only of some buildings or works or for the continuance of use of only a part of the land, the notice shall not take effect regarding such buildings or works or such part of the land, but shall have full effect regarding other buildings or works or other parts of the land.

(5) The authority or any officer of the authority, appointed in his behalf, may dismiss the application or accept it by quashing or varying the notice as he may think fit.

(6) If within the period speciied in the notice or within such period after the disposal or withdrawal of the application under sub-section (3), the notice or so much of it as continues to have effect, or the notice with variation made under sub-section (5) is not complied with, the Planning Authority or the Development Authority may—

(a) prosecute the owner for not complying with the notice and in case where the notice required the discontinuance of any use of land, any other person also who uses the land or causes or permits the land to be used in contravention of the notice; and

(b) (i) in the case of a notice requiring the demolition or alteration of any building or works or carrying out of any building or other operations, itself cause the restoration of the land to its condition before the development took place and secure the compliance with the conditions of the permission or with the permission as modified, by taking such steps as the Planning Authority or the Development Authority may consider necessary including demolition or alteration of any building or works or carrying out of any building or other operations;

(ii) the Planning Authority or the Development Authority may recover the cost of any expenses incurred by it in this behalf from the owner as arrears of land revenue.

(7) Any person prosecuted under clause (a) or sub-section (6) shall be punishable with simple imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months or with a fine which may extend to two thousand rupees, or with both, and in the case of a continuing offence, with a further fine which may extend to two hundred rupees for every day during which such offence continues.

54. (1) Where any development of land as mentioned in section 52 is being carried out but has not been completed, the Planning Authority or the unauthorised Development Authority may serve on the owner and the person carrying out the development a notice requiring the development of land to be discontinued from the time of the service of such notice.

(2) Where such notice has been served, the provisions of clause (b) of sub-section (4) and sub-section (5) of section 53 shall apply with such modifications as may be necessary.

Provided that the provisions of clause (a) of sub-section (4) of section 53 shall not apply and in spite of the filing of application under clauses (a) or (b) of sub-section (3) or section 53 (he notice shall continue to have full effect.

(3) If such notice is not complied with forthwith, the Planning Authority or the Development Authority, or such officer of the concerned authority, who may be authorised in this behalf, may require any police officer to remove such person and all assistants and workmen from the land at any time after the service of such notice and such police officer shall comply with the requisition accordingly.

(4) After the requisition under sub-section (3) has been complied with, the Planning Authority or the Development Authority, or such officer of the concerned authority who may be authorised in this behalf, may, if he or he thinks fit, depute, by a written order, a police officer or any officer or employee of the Planning Authority or the Development Authority to watch the land in order to ensure that the development is not continued.
(5) Where a police officer or an officer or employee of the Planning Authority or Development Authority has been deputed under sub-section (4) to watch the land, the cost of such deputation shall be paid by the person at whose instance such development is being continued or to whom notice under sub-section (1) was given and shall be recoverable from such person as arrears of land revenue.

55. (1) If it appears to the Planning Authority or the Development Authority that it is expedient in the interest or the proper planning of its areas (including the interests or amenities), having regard to the [Land Use and Development Control Plan] prepared, or to be prepared, and to any other material consideration—
   (a) that any use of land should be discontinued; or
   (b) that any conditions should be imposed on the continuance thereof; or
   (c) that any building or works should be altered or removed, the Planning Authority or the Development Authority may, by notice served on the owner,—
      (i) require the discontinuance of that use; or
      (ii) impose such conditions, as may be specified in the notice, on the continuance thereof; or (iii) require such steps, as may be specified in the notice, to be taken for the alteration or removal of any buildings or works, as the case may be, within such period, being not less than one month, as may be specified therein, after the service of the notice.

(2) Any person aggrieved by such notice may, within the period specified in the notice, apply to the authority for the cancellation of the notice.

(3) If an application is filed under sub-section (2) the provisions of subsections (4) and (5) of section 53 shall apply, with such modifications as may be necessary.

(4) If any person—
   (a) who has suffered damage in consequence of the compliance with the notice, by the depreciation of any interest in the land to which he is entitled or by being disturbed in his enjoyment of the land, or

(b) who has carried on any works in compliance with the notice, claims, from the Planning Authority or the Development Authority within the time and in the manner prescribed. For an amount in respect of all damage, or of any expenses reasonably incurred by him for complying with the notice, the provisions or sub-sections (3) and (4) of section 50 shall apply with such modifications as may be necessary.

(5) (a) If any person interested in the land in respect of which a notice is issued under this section, claims that by reason of the compliance with the notice, the land will become incapable or reasonably beneficial use, he may within the period specified in the notice or within such period after the disposal of the appeal, if any, filed under sub-section (2) and in the manner prescribed, serve on the State Government, an acquisition notice requiring his interest in the land to be acquired.

(b) When a notice is served under clause (a) the provisions of sub-sections (2) to (5) of section 49 shall apply with such modifications as may be necessary.

56. Where the Planning Authority or the Development Authority, in the exercise of its functions and powers with respect to any area under it, is required to have regard to the provisions of [Land Use and Development Control Plan] before such [Land Use and Development Control Plan] has become operative, the concerned authority shall have regard to the provisions which, in its opinion, will be required to be included for securing the proper planning of the concerned area.

CHAPTER VDI. Development Schemes.

57. A Development Authority may, as soon as may be, after the [Land Use and Development Control Plan] has been approved by the State Government, for the purpose of implementing the proposals contained in the [Land Use and Development Control Plan], prepare one or more development schemes for the area within its jurisdiction or any part thereof.
58. (1) A scheme may be made in accordance with the provisions of this Act in respect of any land which is—

(a) in the course of development,

(b) likely to be used for building and other purposes, or

(c) already built upon.

Explanation.—The expression ‘land likely to be used for building and other purposes’ shall include any land likely to be used as, or for the purpose of providing open spaces, roads, streets, parks, pleasure or recreational grounds, parking spaces, or for the purpose of executing any work upon or under the land incidental to a scheme, whether in the nature of a building work or not.

(2) Such schemes may make provisions for all or any of the following matters:

(a) the laying out, or relaying out, of land, either vacant or already built upon;

(b) the filling up or reclamation of low lying swamp or land to which damage has been caused by subsidence due to operation or mines or unhealthy areas or levelling up of land;

(c) the laying out of new streets of roads, construction, diversion, extension, alteration, improvement and stopping up of streets, roads and communications;

XIII or 1979.

(Chapter VIII.—Development Schemes.—Sections 59, 60.)

(1) The imposition or conditions and restrictions in regard to the open space lobe maintained about buildings, the percentage of building area for a plot, the number, height and character or buildings allowed in specified areas, the purposes for which buildings or specified areas may or may not be appropriate, the sub-division of plots, the discontinuance or objectionable uses of lands in any areas in reason able periods, parking space and loading and unloading space for any building and the size or projections and advertisement signs;

(ii) the suspension, to the extent necessary, for the proper carrying out of the scheme, or any rule, bye-law, regulation, notification or order made or issued under any Act of the State Legislature or any of the Acts which the State Legislature is competent to amend;

(iii) acquisition by purchase, exchange or otherwise of any property necessary for or effected by the execution of the scheme; and

(iv) such other matters not inconsistent with the objects of this Act, as may be directed by the State Government.

59. The Scheme shall contain, so far as may be necessary, the particulars of following particulars:

(a) the area, ownership and tenure of all existing plots covered by the scheme;

(b) the land allotted or reserved under clause (f) of sub-section (2) of section 59 with a general indication of the uses to which such land is to be put and the terms and conditions subject to which such land is to be put to such uses;

(c) a full description of all the details of the scheme under such clause or sub-section (2) or section 58 as may be necessary;

(d) the laying out or relaying out of the land either vacant or already built upon;

(e) the filling up or reclamation of low lying swamp or land to which damage has been caused by subsidence due to operation of mines or unhealthy areas or levelling up of land;

(f) the extent to which it is proposed to alter the boundaries of the existing plots in accordance with the proposed schemes;

(g) an estimate of the total cost of the scheme and the net cost to be borne by the Development Authority; and

(h) any other particulars which may be prescribed.

60. (1) In a scheme reconstituting the plots, the size and shape of every reconstituted plot shall be determined, so far as may be, to render it suitable for building purposes, and where a plot is already built upon, to ensure that the buildings, as far as possible, comply with the provisions of the scheme as regards open spaces.

(Chapter VII—Development Schemes.—Sections 61, 62.)

(2) For the purpose of sub-section (1), the scheme may contain proposals—
   (a) to form a sub-divided plot by reconstitution of all existing plots by alteration of the boundaries of the existing plot, if necessary;
   (b) to form a reconstituted plot from an existing plot by the transfer wholly or partly of the adjoining lands;
   (c) to provide, with the consent of the owners, that two or more existing plots each of which is held in joint-ownership or in severalty, Lyshin inter cu Tna without alteration of boundaries, be held in ownership in common as a reconstituted plot;
   (d) to allot, a reconstituted plot to a person if dispossessed of land in furtherance of the same; and
   (e) to transfer the ownership of an existing plot from one person to another.

Publication 61. (1) As soon as may be, after the scheme under section 57 has been prepared, the Development Authority shall publish the scheme in the Official Gazette and in one or more local newspapers specifying the place or places where copies of the scheme may be inspected, and inviting objections in writing from any person with respect to the scheme within such period as may be specified in the notice which shall not be less than two months from the date of publication of the notice in the Official Gazette.

Provided that no such notice shall be required where land covered by the scheme has already been acquired and the execution of the scheme does not affect the interest of any person.

(2) Simultaneously with the publication of the scheme the Development Authority shall submit copies of the notice and of the scheme to the State Government drawing particular attention to the provision in the scheme, if any, referring to clause (ni) of sub-section (2) of section 58.

(3) The publication of the scheme as provided under sub-section (1) of this section shall, notwithstanding anything contained in the Land Acquisition Act, 1894, be deemed to be a declaration duly made under section 4 of the said Act.

62. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act the State Government may, after making such inquiry as it deems necessary, by order require the notification, direct the Development Authority to make and publish in such manner as the State Government may direct, a scheme in respect of any land which a development scheme may be made.

XIII of 1979.

(Chapter VI—Development Schemes.—Sections 63, 64.)

(2) If the Development Authority fails to make the scheme within three months from the date of directions given under sub-section (1) or with in such time as the State Government may extend from time to time, an officer shall be appointed by the State Government to make and publish and submit the scheme for the land to which the [hereafter the provisions of this Act apply as far as may be, apply to the making of such scheme.

63. (1) Where the Development Authority has published the scheme under sub-section (1) of section 61, the State Government may, on an application of the Development Authority, by order published in the Official Gazette, suspend to such extent only, as may be necessary for the purpose of implementing the scheme, any rule, by-law, regulation, notification or order made or issued under any law which the Legislature or the State is competent to amend.

(2) Any order issued under sub-section (1) shall cease to operate in the event of the scheme being withdrawn by the said authority either on its own motion or under the directions of the State Government under section 71.

64. (1) Where there is a disputed claim as to the ownership or any piece of land included in an area in respect of which the scheme has been published under sub-section (1) of section 61 and any entry in the records of rights or mutation register relevant to such disputed claims is inaccurate or inconclusive, an enquiry may be held on a submission being made by the Development Authority at any time prior to the date of final publication of the scheme under section 70, by such officer as the State Government may appoint for the purpose of deciding who shall be deemed to be owner for the purpose of this Act.

(2) The decision under sub-section (1) shall not be subject to appeal but it shall not operate as a bar to a regular suit.

(3) Such decision shall be corrected, modified or rescinded as may be necessary to give effect to the decree or order of the Civil Court after the same has been brought to the notice of the Development Authority either by the Civil Court or by any person affected by such decree or order.

(4) Such decision shall, in the event of the Civil Court passing a decree or order which is inconsistent (herewith, be corrected, modified or rescinded in accordance with such decree or order as may be practicable after such decree or order has been brought to the notice of the Planning Authority or the Development Authority either by the Civil Court or by any person affected by such decree or order.

(5) Where such a decree or order of the court is passed after the scheme has been published, such scheme shall be deemed to have been suitably varied by reason of such decree or order.
Restrictions on use and development of land after the public announcement of the scheme.

65. (1) On or after the date on which the scheme is published in the Official Gazette under sub-section (1) of section 61 —

(a) no person shall within the area included in the scheme erect or proceed with any building work, remove, pull down, alter, make additions to or make any substantial repair to any building, part of a building, a compound wall or any drainage work or remove any earth, stone or material, or sub-divide any land or change the use of any land or building unless such person has applied for and obtained necessary permission from the Development Authority in the form prescribed;

(b) the Development Authority on receipt of an application referred to in clause (a) shall at once furnish the applicant with a written acknowledgement of its receipt and may, after an enquiry, either grant or refuse such permission or grant it subject to such conditions as the Development Authority may think fit to impose. If the Authority communicates no decision to the applicant within three months from the date of such acknowledgement, the applicant shall be deemed to have been granted such permission:

(c) if any person contravenes the provisions contained in clause (a) or clause (b), the Development Authority may direct such person by notice in writing to stop any work in progress and after making inquiry in the prescribed manner, remove, pull down, or alter any building or other work or restore the land in respect or which such contravention is made to its original condition: and

(d) any expenses incurred by the concerned Authority under clause (c) shall be a sum due to such Authority under this Act from the person in default or the owner of the plot.

(2) No person shall be entitled to any compensation in respect of any damage, loss or injury resulting from any action taken by the Development Authority under sub-section (1) or this section except in respect of a building or work begun or a contract entered into before the date on which the Development Authority published the scheme under sub-section (1) of section 61 or the notification under sub-section (1) of section 62 was published by the State Government and only insofar as such building or work has proceeded at the time of the publication or the scheme:

Provided that such claim to compensation in the excepted cases shall be subject to the conditions or any agreement entered into between such

(Chapter VII,—Development Schemes.—Section 66)

(3) Where under clause (a) of sub-section (2) of section 58 or under section 59, the purposes to which—

(a) any plot of land may not be used has been specified, such plot upland shall, within such period of not less than three years as may be specified in the scheme, cease to be used for the purposes and shall be used only for the purpose specified in the scheme;

(b) any existing building may not be used has been specified, such building shall, within such period of not less than three years as may be specified in the scheme cease to be used for any purpose other than the purposes specified in the scheme; and

(c) any plot of land with existing buildings may not be used has been specified in the scheme and the existing of such buildings is inconsistent with the purposes of the scheme, such buildings shall, within such period of not less than ten years as may be specified in the scheme, cease to exist.

Provided that such period shall not be less than the reasonable life of the buildings.

(4) Any person aggrieved by the decision of the Development Authority under this section may, within sixty days from the date of the decision, appeal to the Authority as may be prescribed and the order of such Authority in the appeal shall be final.

(5) The provisions of section 50 shall apply in relation to the unauthorised development or use of land included in a development scheme.

(6) The restrictions imposed by this section shall cease to operate in the event of the scheme being withdrawn by the Planning Authority or the Development Authority on its own initiative or on direction of the State Government under section 71.

66. (1) Where the Development Authority thinks that it is necessary in the interest of the public it is necessary to undertake forthwith any of the works included in a scheme for a public purpose, the said Authority shall make an application to the State Government that the land required for the scheme shall vest in the Authority provided there is no building on it.

(2) The State Government may, if satisfied that it is urgently necessary in the public interest to empower the Development Authority to enter on such land for the purpose of executing any of such work, direct such Authority by notification to take possession of the land.
(Section VIII. — Development Schemes. — Sections 67-70.)

(3) The said Authority shall give a notice in the prescribed manner to the person interested in the land, the possession of which is to be taken requiring him to give possession of the land to the said Authority or any person authorised by it in this behalf within a period of one month from the date of service of the notice: and if no possession is delivered within the period specified in the notice, such Authority shall take possession of the land. Such land shall thenceforth, notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, vest absolutely in the said Authority free from all encumbrances.

67. (1) If the Development Authority is opposed or obstructed in taking possession of the land under section 66, it shall apply to the Commissioner of Police. [Kolkata], or to the District Magistrate of the District, within whose jurisdiction the land is situated, to enforce the delivery of the possession of the land to the said Authority. The Commissioner of Police, [Kolkata], or the District Magistrate, as the case may be, shall take such steps as may be reasonably necessary for securing the delivery of possession of the land to the Authority.

(2) For the avoidance of doubt, it is hereby declared that the power to take steps under sub-section (1) includes the power to enter upon any land or other property whatsoever.

68. Where possession of the land is taken by the Development Authority under sections 66 or 67, the person interested in such land shall be entitled to interest at the rate of six per cent. per annum on the amount payable to him under the scheme in respect of the said land from the date on which such possession is taken till the date on which the amount is paid to him by the concerned Authority.

69. After the expiry of the period specified in sub-section (1) of section 61 the Development Authority shall examine the scheme in the light of the objections that may be received, giving a reasonable opportunity of being heard to all such interested persons who have filed objections and who have made requests for being heard in the manner prescribed and make such amendments in the scheme as may be considered proper and shall, as soon as may be, but not later than the time prescribed by these rules, prepare the scheme with or without modifications and submit it to the State Government together with a copy of the objections received by it and its decisions thereon.

70. (1) Simultaneously with the submission of the scheme to the State Government, the Development Authority shall publish notice in the Official Gazette am in a local newspaper of the scheme and the place or places where copies of the scheme may be inspected.
(Chapter VIII.—Development Schemes—Section 71, 72.)

(2) The public notice under sub-section (1) shall specify a date (which shall not be earlier than one monate after the date of the publication of the notice) on which the scheme shall come into force.

Provided that the State Government may, from time to time, by notification, postpone such date, by such period not exceeding three months at a time as it thinks fit.

(3) The publication or the notice under sub-section (1) shall be—

(a) conclusive evidence that the scheme has been duly prepared and adopted; and

(b) notwithstanding anything contained in the Land Acquisition Act, 1894, deemed to be a declaration duly made under section 6 of the said Act.

71. (1) If at any time before the publication of the notice of the scheme under section 70, a representation is made to the Development Authority by a majority of the owners in the area that the scheme should be withdrawn under section 70, the Development Authority shall invite from persons interested in the scheme objections to such representation.

(2) After receiving the objections, if any, and after making such inquiry as it may think fit, the Development Authority may, by notification, withdraw the scheme or any part thereof and upon such withdrawal, no further proceedings shall be taken in regard to such scheme or such part.

(3) Simultaneously with such withdrawal, the Development Authority shall submit to the State Government a copy of the notice withdrawing the scheme and a report of its enquiry made in this behalf.

(4) At any time before the publication or notice of the scheme under section 70, the State Government, if it is satisfied that it is in the public interest, may direct the concerned Authority to withdraw the scheme or part thereof. Thereupon the said Development Authority shall withdraw the scheme or such part by a notification. Upon such withdrawal no further proceedings shall be taken in regard to such scheme or such part thereof.

72. On and after the day on which a scheme comes into force—

(a) all lands required by a Development Authority shall, unless it is otherwise determined in such scheme, vest absolutely in the said Authority free from all encumbrances;

(b) all rights in the existing plots which have been reconstituted shall determine, and the reconstituted plots shall become subject to the rights settled by the Development Authority;

(c) the said Authority shall hand over possession of the reconstituted plots to the owners to whom these are allotted in the scheme.

(Chapter VIII.—Development Schemes.—Section 73.)

As soon as may be after publication of the notice of the scheme commonly in the Official Gazette under sub-section (1) of section 70, but not later than the time prescribed by rules, the Development Authority shall, in accordance with the procedure that may be prescribed, proceed to—

(a) define, demarcate and decide the areas allotted to, or reserved, for public purposes or purposes of the Authority, and also the reconstituted plots;

(d) estimate the compensation payable for the loss or the area of the existing plot in accordance with the provisions contained in clause (d) of sub-section (1) of section 87 in respect of any existing plot which is wholly acquired under the scheme;

(e) determine whether the areas allotted or reserved for the public purpose of religious or charitable purposes are be net to wholly or partly be allotted to persons in ownership in common within the area of the scheme;

(f) estimate the proportion of the sums payable as compensation uneach plot used, allotted or reserved for public purposes or for the purposes of the development which is beneficial partly to the owners or residents within the area of the scheme and partly to the general public, which shall be included in the costs of the Scheme;

(g) determine the proportion of contribution to be levied on each plot used, allotted or reserved for purposes of the Development Authority which is beneficial partly to the owners or residents within the area of the scheme and partly to the general public;

(h) determine the amount of exemption, if any, from the payment of the contribution, that may be granted in respect of plots or portions thereof exclusively used or occupied for religious or charitable purposes on the date of publication or the notice of the scheme under section 70;

(i) determine the value of reconstituted plots included in the scheme and the increment to accrue in respect of such plots in accordance with the provisions of section 85;

(j) calculate the proportion in which the increment in respect of the reconstituted plots included in the scheme shall be liable to contribution to the cost of the Scheme in accordance with the provisions contained in section 89.
(Chapter VIII.—Development Schemes.—Section 74.)

(k) calculate the contribution to be levied on each reconstituted plot included in the scheme;

(l) determine the amount to be deducted from or added to, as the case may be, the contribution leviable from a person in accordance with the provisions contained in section 90;

(m) provide for the total or partial transfer of any right in an existing plot to a reconstituted plot or provide for the extinction of any right in an existing plot in accordance with the provisions contained in section 91;

(n) where a plot is subject to a mortgage with possession or lease, provide for the transfer of any right in an existing plot to a reconstituted plot or provide for the extinction of any right in an existing plot in accordance with the provisions contained in section 91;

decide the proportion of compensation payable to the mortgagee or lessee on one hand and the mortgagor or lessor on the other;

(o) estimate, with reference to claims made before it, after the notice given by it in the prescribed manner, the amount to be paid to the owner of any properly or right injuriously affected by the making of a scheme in accordance with the provisions contained in section 92;

determine the period in which the works provided in the scheme shall be completed by the Development Authority;

Provided that the Development Authority may make variations from the scheme subject to the condition that any variation estimated by it to involve an increase of ten per cent. in the total cost of the scheme or rupees one lakh, whichever is lower, shall require the sanction of the State Government;

Provided further that no substantial variation shall be made without the consent of the State Government and without hearing any objections which may be raised by the owners concerned.

(2) The State Government may, if it thinks fit, whether the period prescribed by rules for deciding all the matters stated in sub-section (1) has expired or not, extend from time to time by notification in the "Official Gazette," the period for deciding the matter referred to.

74. (1) (a) From every decision of the Development Authority in Appeal, matters arising out of clauses (a), (b), (c), (n) and (o) of sub-section (1) of section 73, an appeal shall lie within one month from the date of the decision, to the Authority to be prescribed.

(b) Any person aggrieved by the order of the prescribed authority under clause (a) may prefer an appeal within sixty days from the date of the order of the prescribed authority, to the District Judge within the local limits of whose jurisdiction the area included in the scheme is situated.

(c) The District Judge may hear the appeal or transfer the appeal filed before him to an Additional District Judge for disposal.
(Chapter VIII.—Development Schemes.—Section 75.)

(J) The District Judge or the Additional District Judge, as the case may be, may alter hearing the parties either direct the concerned Authority to reconsider its proposals or accept, modify, vary or reject the proposals of such Authority and shall decide all matters arising out of the different clauses of subsection (i) of section 73 and referred to in clause (a) of this sub-section.

(c) The decision of the District Judge or the Additional District Judge, as the case may be, shall be final and binding on all the parties and a copy of such decision shall be sent to the concerned Authority.

(2) (a) Any decision of the Development Authority under clauses (d) to (m) (both inclusive) and clause (p) of sub-section (i) of section 73 shall be forthwith communicated to the party concerned and any party aggrieved by such decision may within sixty days from the date of communication of the decision, appeal to the Tribunal of Appeal, appointed under section 75, for decision.

(b) The provisions of sections 5, 12 and 14 of the Limitation Act, 1963, shall apply to appeals submitted under this section.

Tribunal of Appeal. (1) As soon as may be, after the Development Authority has decided any matters referred to in sub-section (1) of section 73, the State Government shall, if necessary, appoint a Tribunal of Appeal, hereinafter referred to as the Tribunal, to hear and decide appeals arising out of matters referred to in clause (a) of sub-section (2) or section 74.

(2) The Tribunal shall consist of a Chairman and two assessors.

(3) The Chairman shall be an officer of the rank of District Judge or such Judicial Officer as may be appointed by the State Government.

(4) The Chairman shall appoint the other two Assessors who shall, as far as possible, have knowledge or experience of town planning, valuation of land or civil engineering.

(5) The Chairman and the Assessors shall be appointed members of the Tribunal for such period as the State Government may, by notification, specify for deciding appeals preferred against the decision under clauses (d) to (m) (both inclusive) and clause (p) of sub-section (i) of section 73.

(6) The State Government may, if it thinks fit, remove for incompetence or misconduct or for any other good and sufficient reasons, any Assessor appointed under sub-section (4).

(7) If any Assessor is removed or dies or refuses or neglects to act or becomes incapable of acting, the Chairman shall appoint forthwith a fit and proper person to take the place of such Assessor.
76. The Tribunal may sit either at the headquarters of the Chairman or place of its choice at any other place within the local limits of its jurisdiction which it may deem convenient for the consideration and decision of any matter before such Tribunal.

77. All questions of law and other questions, Powers of Tribunal to decide shall be decided by the Chairman. All other questions shall be decided by the Chairman and the two Assessors or by a majority.

78. (1) The Tribunal shall, after hearing, either confirm the proposals of the Development Authority or direct it, where necessary, to reconsider, vary or modify its proposals.

(2) Every decision of the Tribunal shall be final and binding on all the parties including the Development Authority. A copy of the decision of the Tribunal shall be sent to such Authority.

79. Nothing contained in this Act shall be deemed to constitute the Tribunal to be a Civil Court.

80. (1) The Assessors shall, save where they are salaried Government Officers, be entitled to such remuneration, either by way of monthly salary or by way of fees or partly in one way and partly in the other, as the State Government may, from time to time, decide:

Provided that, in exceptional cases where the scheme is a large one or the work involved is complicated, the State Government may authorise the Chairman and the Assessors, even if they are salaried Government Officers, to receive such special salary or remuneration as the State Government may, by order, decide from time to time.

(2) The salary of the Chairman of the Tribunal or an Assessor who is a salaried Government Officer, and any remuneration payable under sub-section (1) of this section and all expenses incidental to the working of the Tribunal shall, unless the State Government otherwise determines, be defrayed out of the funds of the Development Authority and shall be added to the cost of scheme.

81. (1) Where no appeal has been preferred under section 74, the decision of the Development Authority shall be final and binding on the parties.

(2) Where an appeal has been preferred under section 74 and a copy of the decision in appeal is received by the concerned Authority, it shall then, where necessary, make variations in the scheme in accordance with such decision and may also rectify such errors or omissions, if any, as may have been brought to its notice after publication of notice of the scheme and shall also forward such scheme or schemes together with a copy of its decisions and a copy of the decisions in appeal to the State Government.

82. (1) On and after the day on which a scheme comes into force, any person continuing to occupy any land which he is not entitled to occupy under the scheme may, in accordance with the prescribed procedure, be summarily evicted by the Development Authority or any of its officers authorised in its behalf.

(2) If the Development Authority is opposed or obstructed in evicting such persons occupying possession of land from such persons, the Commissioner of Police, [Kolkata] or the District Magistrate, within whose jurisdiction the land is situated, shall, on the application of the Authority, enforce the eviction of such persons or secure delivery of possession of the land to such Authority.

83. (i) On and after the day on which the notice of a scheme has been published under section 70, the Development Authority may, after giving the prescribed notice,—

(a) remove, pull down, or alter any building or other work in the area included in the scheme which commences the scheme or in the erection of which or carrying out of which, any provision of the scheme has not been complied with,

(b) execute any work which is the duty of any person to execute under the scheme, in any case where it appears to the concerned Authority that delay in the execution of the work would prejudice the efficient operation of the scheme.

(2) Any expenses incurred by the Development Authority under this section may be recovered from the person in default or from the owner of the existing plot in the manner provided for the recovery of sums due to the Authority under the provisions of this Act.

(3) If any action proposed to be taken under sub-section (1) of this section by the Development Authority is questioned, the matter shall be referred to the State Government or any officer authorised by the State Government in this behalf, and the decision of the State Government or of the officer, as the case may be, shall be final and binding on all persons.

84. (1) if after the scheme has come into force the Development Authority considers that the scheme is defective on account of an error, irregularity or infirmity or if the scheme needs variation or modification of a minor nature, the Development Authority shall prepare and publish by notification a draft of such variation,
(2) The draft variation published under sub-section (1) shall specify every amendment proposed to be made in the scheme, and if any such amendment relates to a matter specified in any of the clauses of sub-section (2) of section 58, the draft variation shall also contain such other particulars as may be prescribed.

(3) The draft variation shall be open to inspection of the public at the office or the Development Authority during the office hours.

(4) Not later than one month of the date of publication of the draft variation, any person affected thereby may communicate in writing his objection to the Development Authority.

(5) After receiving the objections under sub-section (4) the concerned Authority shall, after making such enquiry as it may think fit, publish the variation with or without modification by notification.

(6) From the date of the publication of the variation, such variation shall take effect as if it were incorporated in the scheme.

85. A development scheme may, at any time, be varied by a subsequent scheme made and published in accordance with this Act:

Provided that, when a scheme is so varied, the provisions of this Act, shall, as far as may be, apply to such variation and making or subsequent scheme: and the date of publication of the varied scheme shall, for the purposes of sections 63, 65, 87, 88 and 90 be deemed to be the date of publication of the scheme referred to in those sections.

86. In the event of a development scheme being withdrawn the costs of the scheme shall be borne by the Development Authority or be paid to such Authority by the owners concerned, in such proportion as the State Government may in each case determine.
87. (1) The cost of a development scheme shall include—

(a) all sums payable by the Development Authority which are not specifically excluded from the cost of the scheme;
(b) all sums spent or estimated to be spent by the Development Authority in the making and in the execution of the scheme, the estimates for works included in the scheme being made on the date the notice of the scheme is published under section 70;
(c) all sums payable as compensation for land reserved or allotted for any public purpose or purposes of the Development Authority which is solely beneficial to the owners or residents within the area of the scheme:
(Chapter VIII.—Development Schemes.—Sections 88, 89.)

(d) such portion of the amount payable for land reserved or allotted for any public purpose or purposes of the Development Authority which is beneficial partly to the owners or residents within the area of the scheme and partly to the general public, as is attributable to the benefit accruing to the owners or residents within the area of the scheme from such reservation or allotment;

(e) all legal expenses incurred by the Development Authority in the making and in the execution of the scheme;

(f) the amount by which the total of the value of the existing plots exceeds the total of the value of the plots each of such being estimated at its market value on the date of the publication of the scheme under section 61 with all the buildings and works thereon on that date and without reference to improvement contemplated in the scheme other than improvements to the alteration of its boundaries.

(2) If in any case the total of the values of the plots included in the final scheme exceeds the total of the values of the existing plots, each of such plots being estimated in the manner provided in clause (q) of sub-section (1), then the amount of such excess shall be deducted in arriving at the costs of the schemes as defined in sub-section (1).

Calculation 88. For the purposes of this Act, the increment shall be deemed to be the increment amount by which, on the date of the publication of the scheme under section 61, the market value of any plot with reference to the improvements contemplated in the scheme, on the assumption that the scheme has been completed, would exceed on the same date the market value of the same plot estimated without reference to such improvement:

Provided that in estimating such value, the value of buildings or other works erected or in course of erection on such plot shall not be taken into consideration.

Contribution 89. (1) The cost of the scheme shall be met wholly or in part by of scheme—

contribution to be levied by the Development Authority on each plot included in the scheme calculated in proportion to the increment which is estimated to accrue in respect of such plot by the Development Authority:

Provided that—

(a) no such contribution shall exceed the increment estimated by the Development Authority to accrue in respect of each plot;

(b) where a plot is subject to mortgage with possession or to a lease, the Development Authority shall determine in what proportion the mortgagee or lessee on the one hand and the mortgagor or lessor on the other hand, shall pay such contribution.
(Chapter Vll.—Development Schemes.—Sections 90-93.)

(c) no such contribution shall be levied on a plot used, allotted or reserved, for a public purpose or purposes of the Development Authority, such plot being solely for the benefit of the owners or residents within the area of the scheme;

(d) the contribution levied on a plot used, allotted or reserved for a public purpose or purposes of the Development Authority, which is beneficial partly to the owners or residents within the area of the scheme and partly to the general public, shall be calculated in the proportion of the benefit estimated to accrue to the general public from such use, allotment or reservation.

(2) The owner of each plot included in a scheme shall be primarily liable for the payment of the contribution leviable in respect of such plot.

90. The amount by which the total value of reconstituted plots included in a scheme with all the buildings and works thereon allotted to the person falls short or or exceeds the total value of the existing plots with all the buildings and works thereon of such person shall be deducted from or added to, as the case may be, the contribution leviable from such person each of such plots being estimated at its market value on the date of publication of the scheme under section 61 and without reference to improvement contemplated in the scheme other than improvements due to the alteration of its boundaries.

91. Any right in an existing plot which, in the opinion of the Development Authority, is capable of being transferred wholly or in part, without prejudice to the making of a development scheme to a reconstituted plot shall be so transferred and any right in an existing plot which, in the opinion of the Development Authority is not capable of being so transferred shall be extinguished:

Provided that an agricultural lease shall not be transferred from an existing plot to a reconstituted plot without the consent of all the parties to such lease.

92. The owner or any property or right which is injuriously affected by the making or a development scheme shall, subject to provisions or section 91, if he makes a claim before the Development Authority within sixty days of the receipt of the notice from such Development Authority, be entitled to obtain an amount irrespective of or from the said Authority or from any person benefited or partly from such Authority and partly from such person as the said Authority may in each case determine.

93. (1) No amount shall be payable in respect of any property of private right of any sort which is alleged to be injuriously affected by reason of any provisions contained in the development scheme, ir under any other law for the time being in force applicable to the area for which such scheme is made, no amount is payable for such injurious aution.
(Chapter VIII.—Development Schemes.—Sec. 94-97)

(2) Property or a private right of any sort shall not be deemed to be injuriously affected by reason of any provision contained in a development scheme, which with a view to securing the amenity of the area included in such scheme or any part thereof, imposes any conditions and restrictions in regard to any of the matters specified in clause (b) of section 59.

94. If the owner of a plot ultraceded by a scheme is not provided with another plot in the scheme or if the coin required to be levied from him under section 90 is less than the total amount deducted therefrom under any of the provisions of this Act, the net amount of his loss shall be payable to him by the Development Authority in cash or in such other way as may be agreed upon by the parties.

95. (1) If for any cause the total amount which would be due to the Development Authority from the owner of a plot to be included in the scheme exceeds the value of such plot estimated on the assumption that the scheme has been completed, the said Authority shall acquire the plot of such defaulter by paying the value of such plot estimated at its market value on the date of publication of the scheme under section 61 and without reference to improvements contemplated in the scheme, and apportion the compensation among the owner and other persons interested in the plot, and thereupon the plot included in the scheme shall vest absolutely in the said Authority free from all encumbrances, but subject to the provisions of this Act.

Provided that the payment, made by such Authority on account of the value of the existing plot shall not be included in the costs of the scheme.

96. All payments due to be made to any person by a Development Authority shall, as far as possible, be made by adjustment in such person's account with such Authority in respect of the reconstituted plot concerned or of any other plot in which he has an interest and failing such adjustment, he shall be paid in cash or in such other way as may be agreed upon by the parties.

97. (1) The net amount payable under the provisions of this Act by the owner of a plot included in a scheme may at the option of the contributor be paid at a lump sum or in annual instalments not exceeding ten. If the owner elects to pay the amount by instalments, interest at six per cent, per annum shall be charged on the net amount payable. If the owner elects not to include the option on or before the date specified in a notice issued to him in that behalf by the Development Authority, he shall be deemed to have elected the... option of paying contribution by instalments and the interest in [tie contribution shall be calculated from the date specified in the notice, being the date before which he was required to make an election as aforesaid:

Provided that, where all owner duties to pay the amount at a time but fails to do so interest at six percent, per annum shall be payable by him to the said Authority, from the date specified in the notice to the date of payment.

(2) Where two or more plots included in a scheme belong to the same owner, the net amount payable by such owner under the provisions of this Act shall be distributed over his several reconstituted plots in proportion to the increment which is estimated to accrue in respect of each constituted plot unless the owner and the said Authority agree to a different method of distribution.

98. (1) A Development Authority shall, competent to make any agreement with any person in respect of any matter which is to be provided for in the developmen i scheme subject to the power of the State Government to modify or disallow such agreement unless it is otherwise expressly provided therein, such agreement shall take effect on and after the day on which the development scheme comes into force.

(2) Such an agreement shall not in any way affect the determination of the matters at standing in section 73 or the rights of third parties, but it shall be binding on the parties to the agreement:

Provided that if any agreement contains any provisions which are inconsistent with the scheme as published by the Development Authority under section 64, such an agreement shall be void.

Provided further there, if the agreement is modified by the State Government, either party shall have the option of avoiding it if it so elects.

99. Any sum due to a Development Authority under the provisions of this Recovery of Act or any rule or any regulation made thereunder shall be a first charge on the plot on which it is due, subject to the prior payment of any of land revenue, if any, due to the State Government thereon and if it is not paid on demand on the day on which it becomes due or on the day fixed by the said Authority, it shall be recoverable by such Authority as arrears of land revenue.

100. Where after completing and meeting all the costs of a scheme as provided or provided in this Act, any amount from the sums paid to the Development Authority remains as surplus, such Authority shall, in consultation with the owners of the plots, spend the same amount for providing further amenities within the area of the scheme.
101. (1) The Development Authority shall complete all the works provided in a scheme within the period prescribed:

Provided that, in exceptional circumstances on application by the said Authority, the State Government may, by order in writing specifying these circumstances, grant to such Authority further extension or time as it may think fit.

(2) If the Development Authority fails to complete the work within the prescribed period or within the period extended under the proviso to sub-section (1) the State Government may appoint any of its officers to complete such works at the cost of the said Authority.

CHAPTER IX

Levy, Assessment and Recovery of Development Charge.

102. (1) In accordance with the provisions of this Act and the rules made thereunder and with the previous sanction of the State Government, every Planning Authority or Development Authority shall, by notification published in the Official Gazette, levy a charge (hereinafter called the development charge) on the carrying out of any development or change of use of land, for which permission is required under Chapter VII, in the whole or any part of the Planning Area, at rates not exceeding those specified in section 103:

Provided that the rates may be different for different parts of the Planning Area,

(2) The charge shall be leviable on any person who undertakes or carries out such development or changes any such use.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-sections (1) and (2) no development charge shall be levied on development, or change or use, of any land vested in or under the control or possession of the Central Government, the State Government or any local authority.

(4) The State Government may, by rules, provide for the exemption from the levy of development charge of any development or change or any use of any land specified in the rules.

103. The development charge shall not exceed—

(vii) from industry to commerce Rs. 5 per cubic metre of the contents of such building or works.

(e) for carrying out development by erection or re-erection of any building or works Rs. 1500 per sq. metre

114. (1) Any person who intends to carry out any development or to change any use of any land for which permission under Chapter VII is necessary, whether he has applied for such permission or not, or who has commenced the carrying out of any such development or has carried out such development or change of any such use, shall apply to the Planning Authority or the Development Authority for the assessment of development charge payable in respect thereof.

(2) The said Authority shall, on such application being made or, if no such application is made, after serving a notice on the person liable for development charge, determine whether or not, and if so, what development charge is leviable in respect of that development or use or change in use.

(3) The said Authority shall after giving a reasonable opportunity of hearing to the person who has made an application under sub-section (1) or who has been served with notice under sub-section (2) assess the amount of development charge:

Provided that—

(a) where permission under Chapter VII has not been granted for carrying out the said development, the Planning Authority or the Development Authority may postpone the assessment of the development charge;

(b) where the application relates to the carrying out of any development, the said Authority may refuse to assess the development charge payable in respect thereof unless it is satisfied that the applicant has an interest in the land sufficient to enable him to carry out such development, or that the applicant is able to obtain such interest and that the applicant will carry out the development within such period as the said Authority considers appropriate:

Appeals against an assessment of development charge to be charged on arrears of land revenue.

(c) where the application relates to the change of any use, the said Authority may refuse to assess the amount or development charge in respect thereof unless it is satisfied that the change of use will be effected within such period as the said Authority considers appropriate:

(d) the Planning Authority or the Development Authority shall deliver or serve a copy of each order on the applicant or the person concerned; and

(e) such order or assessment, subject to the provisions of section 105 shall be final and shall not be questioned in any Court.

105. (1) Any person liable for such development charge dissatisfied with the order of assessment may within thirty days from the date of order appeal to the State Government.

(2) On all appeal made under sub-section (1), an officer of the State Government appointed in this behalf shall, after giving a reasonable opportunity of hearing to such person and the Planning Authority or Development Authority concerned, pass such order as he deems fit.

106. (1) If any development or land is commenced or carried out or any use is changed without payment of the amount of the development charge, such development charge shall, subject to prior payment of the land revenue, if any, be a first charge upon the land involved and also in any other land in which such person has any interest.

(2) The development charge shall be recoverable as arrears of land revenue.

A. U.) Notwithstanding anything contained in the foregoing provisions of this Act, every Planning Authority or Development Authority may, in accordance with the provisions of this Act and the rules made thereunder and with the previous sanction of the State Government, by notification levy a charge (hereinafter called the civic amenity charge) for extending such civic amenity to the whole or any part of the Planning Area and at such rate as may be prescribed.

(2) The civic amenity charge shall be recoverable as arrears of land revenue.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section, "civic amenity" shall have the same meaning as in the West Bengal Government Townships (Extension of Civic Amenities) Act, 1975.

Section 105A was inserted by 5.2 of the West Bengal Town and Country (Planning and Development) (Amendment) Act, 1991 < WBCM Act VII of 1993).
CHAPTER X Finance, Accounts and Audit.

107. [(1) Every Planning Authority or Development Authority (other than the

110. Every Planning Authority or Development Authority shall prepare every year, in such form and within such time as may be approved by the State Government, a budget in respect of the next financial year, showing the estimated receipts and expenditure of such Authority.

UK

110. (1) Every Planning Authority or Development Authority shall prepare every year, in such form and within such time as may be approved by the State Government, a budget in respect of the next financial year, showing the estimated receipts and expenditure of such Authority.

(2) Every Planning Authority or Development Authority shall maintain proper accounts and other relevant records and prepare an annual statement of accounts including the balance sheet in such form as may be approved by the State Government.

(3) The accounts of the Authority shall be made by such person as may be appointed by the State Government.

(4) The auditor shall submit his report to the Council Authority and shall forward a copy thereof to the State Government.

112. As soon as may be after the close of a year, the Planning Authority or the Development Authority shall prepare a report of its activities during the preceding year and submit it to the State Government in such form and on or before such date as may be prescribed.

113. (1) Every Planning Authority or Development Authority shall constitute, for the benefit of its whole-time paid members, officers and other employees, in such manner and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed, such provident funds as it may deem fit.

(2) Where any such provident fund has been constituted, the State Government may declare that the provisions of the Provident Funds Act, 1925, shall apply to such fund as if it were a Government Provident Fund.

114. An Authority constituted or deemed to have been constituted under this Act, may, from time to time, borrow, at such rate of interest and for such period and upon such terms, as the State Government may approve, any sum of money... required for carrying out the purposes of this Act or servicing any loan obtained by it.

CHAPTER XI—Supplemental and Miscellaneous Provisions.—

Section 115.

115. (1) Any officer of the Planning Authority or the Development Tower of an authority authorised in the behalf may enter into or upon any land or building with or without assistance or workmen for the purpose of—

(a) making any enquiry, inspection, measurement or survey or taking levels of such land or building;

(b) selling out boundaries and intended lines of works;

(c) specifying such levels, boundaries and lines by placing marks and cutting trenches;

(d) examining works under construction and ascertaining the course of sewers and drains;

(e) digging or boring into the sub-soil;

(f) ascertaining whether any land is being or has been developed in contravention of any provision of this Act or rules or regulations made thereunder; and

(g) doing any other thing necessary for the efficient administration of this Act:

Provided that—

(i) in the case of any building used as a dwelling house, or upon any enclosed part or garden attached to such a building, no such entry shall be made without giving the occupier at least twenty-four hours' notice in writing of the intention to enter, unless such occupier agrees;

(ii) sufficient opportunity shall be given to enable women (if any) to withdraw from such land or building;

(iii) due regard shall always be had, so far as may be compatible with the exigencies of the purpose for entry, to the social and religious usages of the occupants of the land or building.

(2) The power of the officer under sub-seeion (1) shall extend only to the Planning Area or the concerned Authority and such other area which the State Government may have directed to be included in the development plan.

(3) Any person who obstructs the entry of a person empowered or authorised under this section to enter into or upon any land or building or molests such person after such entry shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees, or with both.
116. All documents including bills, notices and orders required by this Act or any rule or regulation made thereunder to be served upon or issued or presented to any person shall, save as otherwise provided in this Act or rule or regulation, be effected—

(a) by giving or tendering the said document to such person: or
(b) if such person is not found, by leaving such document at his last known place of abode or by giving or tendering the same to some adult member or servant of his family: or
(c) if this address elsewhere is known, by forwarding such document to him by registered post under a cover bearing the same address: or
(d) if none of the means as aforesaid is available, by causing a copy of such document to be affixed on some conspicuous part of the land or building, if any, to which the document relates.

117. Every public notice given under this Act or rules or regulations made thereunder shall be in writing over the signature of such officer who may be authorised in this behalf by any Planning Authority or Development Authority and shall be widely made known in the locality to be affected thereby, by affixing copies thereof in conspicuous public places within the said locality, or by proclaiming the same by beat of drum or by advertisement in a local newspaper and by such other means which the concerned authority thinks fit.

118. Where any notice, order or other document issued or made under this Act or any rule or regulation made thereunder, requires anything to be done for which no time is fixed, the notice, order or other document shall specify a reasonable time for doing the same.

119. All permissions, orders, decisions, notices and other documents issued or made by the Planning Authority or the Development Authority shall be authenticated by the signature of the Secretary of the concerned authority or such other officer as may be authorised by the Planning Authority or the Development Authority in this behalf.

120. A copy of any receipt, application, plan, notice, order, entry in a register, or other document in the possession of any Planning Authority or Development Authority, if duly authenticated by the person authorised by the concerned Authority, shall be received and admitted as evidence of the matters and transactions therein recorded to the same extent, as the original entry or document would, if produced, have been admissible to prove such matters.
(Chapter XI.—Supplemental and Miscellaneous Provisions.—Sections 121-123.)

121. No officer or employee of any Planning Authority or Development Authority shall, in any legal proceedings to which such Authority is not a party, be required to produce any register or document the contents of which can be proved under the preceding section by a certified copy, or to appear as witness to prove the matters and transactions recorded therein, unless by order of the Court made for special cause.

122. (1) If the person committing an offence under this Act is a company, every person, who, at the time the offence was committed, was in charge of, and was responsible to, the company for the conduct of its business as well as the company, shall be deemed to be guilty of the offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly:

Provided that nothing contained in this sub-section shall render any such person liable to any punishment provided in this Act, if he proves that the offence was committed without his knowledge or that he exercised all due diligence to prevent its commission,

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1) where an offence under this Act has been committed by a company and it is proved that the offence has been committed with the consent or connivance of, or is attributable to any neglect on the part of any director, manager, secretary or other officer of the company, such director, manager, secretary or other officers shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

Explanation.—For the purpose of this section—
(a) "company" means a body corporate, includes a firm or other association of individuals; and
(b) "director" in relation to a firm means a partner in the firm.

123. If any person—
(a) obstructs, or molests any person engaged or employed by any Planning Authority or Development Authority, or any person with whom any such Authority has entered into a contract, in the performance or execution by such person of his duty or of anything which he is empowered or required to do under this Act, or
(b) removes any mark set up for the purpose of indicating any level or direction necessary to the execution of works authorised under this Act, he shall be punishable with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees or with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two months.

The words within the square brackets were substituted for the words 'Outline Development Plan' by s. 13(a)(ii) of the West Bengal Town and Country Planning and Development (Amendment) Act, 1973 (West Bengal Act XXVI or 'W.').

The words 'Detailed Development Plan' were omitted by s. 13(a)(ii) 'W.'
(Chapter XI—Supplemental and Miscellaneous Provisions—
Section 139.)

(g) the periodical amendment of [Land Use and Development Control Plans.] the period on the expiration of which such an amendment may be taken up, procedure to be followed in making such amendment;
(h) the form in which any application for permission for development shall be made, the particulars to be furnished in such application and documents and plans which shall accompany such application;
(i) the form of registration of application and the particulars to be contained in such register;
(j) the manner of filing, and the fees to be paid for and the procedure to be followed in appeals;
(k) the manner in which an acquisition notice is to be served, and claim for compensation is to be made, the time within which such claim is to be made and the procedure to be followed for assessment of compensation;
(l) procedure for the levy of development charges and exemption from it on any development or change of any use or any land;
(m) the manner, in which application for the assessment of development charge is to be made;
(n) the sum of money that may be kept in current account; (o) the form of the budget of Planning and Development Authorities, the date on or before which it shall be prepared, the manner of preparing it and the number of copies that have to be sent to the State Government;
(p) the form of the annual statement of accounts and balance sheet;
(q) the form of the annual report of the Planning and Development Authorities and date on or before which it shall be submitted to the State Government;
(r) the manner and the constitution of provident fund for the whole time paid members and officers and other employees of Planning and Development Authorities and the conditions subject to which such funds may be constituted;
(s) the manner of which copies may be granted and the fees for such copies; and (t) any other matter which has to be or may be prescribed by rules.

139. Any Planning Authority or Development Authority may, with the prior approval of the State Government, make regulations consistent with this Act and without prejudice to the generality of this power such regulations may provide for—
(a) the time and place of holding and procedure to be followed in meetings of the Planning Authority, Development Authority and Advisory Committee, and the number of members necessary to form a quorum therein;

The words within the square brackets were substituted for the words "development plans," by s. 1(b) of the West Bengal Town and Country (Planning and Development) (Amendment) Act, 1991 (West Des. Ad XXVI of 1994).
The West Bengal Town and Country (Planning and Development) Act, 1979

(Chapter XI—Supplemental and Miscellaneous Provisions.—Sections 140-142.)

(b) the powers and duties of the officers and employees of the Planning Authority and Development Authority;

(c) the salaries, allowances and conditions of service of its officer and employees;

(d) the terms and conditions for the continuance of use of any land used otherwise than in conformity with a development plan; and

(e) any other matter which has to be or may lie prescribed by rules.

140. All rules made under this Act shall be laid for not less than thirty days, before the State Legislature, as soon as may be, after they are made and shall be subject to such modifications as the Legislature may make during the session in which they are so laid or the session immediately following.

141. (1) Where the State Government is satisfied that the purposes for which any Planning Authority or Development Authority was established under this Act have been substantially achieved so as to render the continued existence of such authority unnecessary, it may, by notification, declare that authority in question shall be dissolved with effect from such date as may be specified in the notification, and the concerned authority shall stand dissolved accordingly.

(2) With effect from the date specified in sub-section (1)—

(a) all properties, funds and dues which are vested in, or realisable by, the Planning or the Development Authority shall vest in or be realisable by the State Government;

(b) all liabilities which are enforceable against the concerned authority shall be enforceable against the State Government; and

(c) for the purpose of realising properties, funds and dues referred to in clause (a), all functions of the Planning or Development Authority shall be discharged by the State Government.

142. (1) The [Kolkata Metropolitan Development Authority Act, 1972, and the [Kolkata] Metropolitan Planning Area (Use and Development of Land) Control Act, 1965 shall stand repealed with effect from the date on which the [Kolkata Metropolitan Planning Area as referred to in section 16 of this Act is declared to be a Planning Area under sub-section (1) of section 9 of this Act.
