(4) The Committee shall be a body corporate by the name of the Evacuee Property Management Committee of West Bengal and shall have perpetual succession and a common seal and shall by the said name sue and be sued.

12. (1) A member of the Committee, other than the President, may, by writing under his hand, delivered to the prescribed officer or the State Government, resign his office after giving one month's notice of his intention to resign.

Resignation and removal of members and filling up of vacancies.

(2) The State Government may at any time remove any member of the Committee on any of the following grounds, namely:

- (a) that he has been convicted of an offence which, in the opinion of the State Government, involves moral turpitude;
- (b) that he has applied to be adjudged or has been adjudged an insolvent;
- (c) that he, in the opinion of the State Government, is incompetent, or incapable of or unfit to perform the duties of his office on account of physical or mental infirmity;
- (d) that he, in the opinion of the State Government, has been mismanaging the properties of which the Committee has taken charge.

[West Ben. Act

(3) In the event or vacancy occurring in the office of any member of the Committee, other than the President, by death, resignation, removal or otherwise, the State Government shall fill up the vacancy in the manner provided in sub-section (3) of section 11.

13. The Committee may, with the approval of the State Government, make regulations for conducting its business and may act notwithstanding any vacancy in the office of any member other than that of the President:

Provided that the quorum for a meeting of the Committee shall be two members, one of whom shall be the President.

Conduct of business
of the Committee.

14. (1) In the exercise or discharge of its powers, duties and functions, the Committee may be assisted by such number of officers (hereinafter referred to as Administrative Officer) as may be appointed by the Committee with the approval of the State Government and by such other staff as may be appointed by the Committee.

(2) An Administrative Officer shall, on appointment, furnish such security as may be fixed by the State Government.

15. (1) The members of the Committee shall not be entitled to any salary but may receive such allowances as may be fixed by the State Government.

(2) The remuneration of the Administrative Officers and or other staff shall be such as may be fixed by the State Government.

16. (1) The salary and allowances of the President, the allowances of other members of the Committee, the remuneration of the Administrative Officers and other staff and such other expenses as may be incurred by the Committee in the exercise or discharge of any of its powers, duties and functions under this Act or the rules made thereunder in respect of any evacuee property, shall be defrayed out of levy at such rate, as may be prescribed, on the receipts derived from such property and shall, subject to the provisions of section 8, be a first charge on such receipts.

Expenses
Committee.

(2) The State Government may from time to time make such advances to the Committee as may be necessary enable it to function. All such advances shall be recoverable with interest at three per centum per annum from the receipts derived from the properties which may vest in the Committee and shall subject to sub-section (1) be a charge on every and all such properties and shall have priority over all other charges on every and all such properties.

17. (1) The Committee may take charge of any evacuee property of an evacuee in the following cases:

- (a) where a report is received from the Collector under subsection (2) of section 4, or
- (b) where before the appointed day the evacuee makes a declaration before the prescribed authority of his intention not to return to West Bengal, or
- (c) where after the appointed day the evacuee has not returned to West Bengal, whether there is or is not a declaration by the evacuee of his intention not to return or whether there is or is not an application to the Committee to take charge of his property.

Managed by the Committee.

(2) Before taking charge of an evacuee property, the Committee shall cause a public notice to be given in the prescribed manner calling for objections to the taking of charge of such property by the Committee to be filed before the Committee within a date specified in such notice.

(3) Where objections are filed under sub-section (2), the Committee shall summarily decide the objections after calling, if necessary, for a report from the Collector of the district in which the property or any part thereof is situated.

(4) If there are no such objections as aforesaid or if the Committee, after proceeding in the manner aforesaid, rejects all such objections, the Committee shall pass an order directing that the charge of the property be taken by the Committee and thereupon such property shall vest in the Committee and any Collector's Order made in respect of such property shall stand cancelled.

(5) Where any evacuee property vests in the Committee under subsection (4), the Committee shall, as soon as may be, give public notice of the fact in the prescribed manner.

(6) Notwithstanding anything contained in the foregoing provisions of this section, the Committee shall not take charge of any evacuee property if the evacuee being the sole owner or the entire body of co-sharer owners of such property, objects to the charge thereof being taken by the Committee and furnishes evidence to the satisfaction of the Committee that adequate arrangements have been made for the management and proper utilization thereof.

(7) Nothing in this section shall affect the right of any person to establish his title in a competent Court.

18. (1) An evacuee, whose property has vested in the Committee, may nevertheless at any time dispose of such property by sale, exchange, gift, mortgage (not being an usufructuary mortgage) or otherwise but not by way of lease-
